Greta Garbo Comes to Deerpath Next Monday in "The Kiss"; Others

With Greta Garbo, in "The Kiss" next Monday as a headliner, the Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, offers during the next week one of the best programs of the season, beginning with Friday and Saturday of this week when the feature is Will Rogers in "They Had to See Paris." Here is a picture nobody should miss. It's a talkie. Saturday matinee at 2 o'clock.

Sunday Janet Gaynor and Edward Morton have the chief roles in "Christina" a fine talking picture. Continuous from 2 to 11 p. m.

Monday the great Greta Garbo in "The Kiss." This is a synchronized picture with sound effects and presents the famous "mystery star" in one of her best roles. Greta Garbo is everywhere regarded as the exponent of romance in the films, and her widespread success in these roles has won her a tremendous following among movie fans. She is at her splendid best in "The Kiss." At the Deerpath for one day only.

Tuesday and Wednesday "Gold Diggers of Broadway," singing, dancing, talking picture in technicolor. It's a great success. Thursday and Friday of next week, Colleen Moore in "Footlights and Fools" another big hit for Colleen, talking, music and singing. Saturday, one day only, Nancy Carroll in "Sweetie," a talkie. Sunday and Monday, February 8 and 9, "Rio Rita," with Bebe Daniels and John Bowles. A delightful musical revue, talking, singing and dancing. It has been a big success everywhere.

Coming soon, George Arliss in "Disraeli."

Teachers of County Meet at Lake Bluff

A meeting of the teachers of the Lake county schools will be held at the Lake Bluff school on Saturday morning, February 1, according to an announcement by County Superintendent T. A. Simpson.

The speakers will be: George S. Wham, dean of faculty of the S. I. S. N. university at Carbondale, Ill., who will speak on "The Power of Suggestion" and "Some Neglected Values in Education." William M. McGovern of Northwestern university, whose subject will be "My Adventures in Tibet." Miss Clara Nelson of Chicago who will demonstrate the value of phonograph records in the education of children.

Waukegan Woman to Run for Legislature

For the first time in the political history of the Eighth Senatorial district a woman is to be listed among the candidates for the lower house it was learned today through the announcement of Mrs. Grace Bairstow, of 224 Ash street, Waukegan, as a candidate for state representative, according to the Waukegan Sun.

Mrs. Bairstow intends to make a vigorous campaign for the office according to her friends, and only entered the field after making a careful survey of the possible out-come.
