

Rotary Club Planning Theatre Party Feb. 14

At the regular weekly luncheon and meeting of the Highland Park Rotary club, held Monday noon at the Moraine hotel, it was planned to hold a theatre party on February 14, and there is probability that a dinner preceding the theatre will be given at the Medinah Athletic club. Ed Sweitzer is chairman of arrangements for the theatre party, and H. F. Kelley has charge of plans for the dinner. Several of the local Rotarians are members of the Medinah Athletic club. In the absence of a speaker at Monday's luncheon Paul L. Udell was called upon to give a summary of his life history and adventures, which he proceeded to do. This is a frequent feature of the meetings, each member in turn being required to sketch his career for the benefit of his fellow members.

Give Concert Friday at Elm Place School

The Mason Jubilee Singers, a well known Chatauqua group will give a delightful group of negro songs and spirituals, Friday evening, January 31, tomorrow, at the Elm Place school auditorium.

They gave a most interesting program here last year, and the St. John's Evangelical church are very fortunate in being able to secure them for a return engagement. All who attended last year were delighted with their program and are anxiously awaiting their return tomorrow evening. Those interested in this form of entertainment will not want to miss hearing this group.

Circuit Court Recess Until February Third

Circuit court is adjourned this week, to be resumed on February 3 when Judge Edward Shurtleff will take the bench in the place of Judge Claire C. Edwards who with his family left a few days ago for a month's vacation in California.

There will be no further criminal call in this term of court, thus affording the court several extra days in which to dispose of the civil docket.
