The question arises many times what shall I do to be saved and there is the answer, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ." Well how can we believe on Him whom we know not? That is the burning question. Therefor Jesus called His disciples, gave them instructions, and then commissioned them to go out into the world with this knowledge. It is then for us to be taught about the Lord Jesus Christ and how to inherit salvation. Thus the Church of Jesus Christ stands ready to offer you this gift—namely a better knowledge of Jesus.

As individuals with undying souls we should take every opportunity to hear God's Word and to be instructed by it which alone make us wise unto Salvation. Every day's neglect for the need of the soul is but another opportunity gone by never to return. It is therefor your honor and duty to be found in the House of the Lord. The Zion Lutheran church stands always ready to serve and cordial invitation is extended to the unchurched, "Come and worship with us."

The Philippian jailor said, "What must I do to be saved?" Paul and Silas answered, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." That night he took the missionaries to his own home, cared for their needs and openly confessed faith in Christ. It was a time of rejoicing. Read Acts 15:14-40.

Bethany Evangelical Church

H. F. Siemsen, Pastor
A. S. Haag, Assistant Pastor

The Vesper service of last Sunday afternoon proved to be very interesting, the Bethany choir again are the recipients of many congratulations and words of encouragement. The young people's tea following the vesper also attracted a large group of young folks who later enjoyed an inspiring devotional service.

The Bethany Sunday school will begin at the usual time, 9:45, next Sunday morning. The study of the Bible, the building of character and the development of a Christian life are very essential to every home in this community. If at the present time you are not enrolled in some church school, we invite you most heartily to join some class in our organization, and familiarize yourself with those teachings which make life happy and worth while.

The morning worship service of next Sunday morning will be given over to the program of the Woman's Missionary society. This service will begin at 11 a.m. It will be known as "The Day of Prayer" throughout the Evangelical church. Special music, special features and a message in keeping with the day by the pastor will constitute the morning calendar. In keeping with the day of prayer all who are interested in the Bethany church and in the great cause of missions, are asked to observe this week as a self denial week. During which time each one is asked to deny themselves of one or more things and give the price of the denial in next Sunday morning's offering. It is interesting to know that nearly a half million people throughout America, Europe and Asia will be thinking and acting along similar lines. Surely the world ought to be lifted to a higher plane through an effort of this kind.

At 7:00 p.m. our L.L.C.E. will meet in their room to discuss the question, "How may young people crusade with Christ?" This will be a very interesting service, we welcome and invite others to attend.

The evening service will begin at 7:45. It will be our privilege to have with us the Rev. J. H. Taylor of this city. Mr. Taylor has many warm friends in the Bethany church and they will be very happy to hear him at this occasion. We invite his many other friends of the community to share this service with us.

A special speaker or some special musical group has been procured for each Sunday evening from now until Easter. This series of services will bring strong talent to the Bethany church each Sunday night. You can not afford to miss these services which will be happy and inspiring in nature.

The Community Leadership Training school will begin on Monday evening. These courses are being offered at the Highland Park Presbyterian church. We hope that many of this community will take advantage of this splendid opportunity.
