

GIVE HIM HIS

St. Valentines Gift

from FELL'S MEN'S STORE

St. Valentines Day Friday February 14

- NECKWEAR
- HICKOK BELT SETS
- PAJAMAS
- SHIRTS
- INTERWOVEN STOCKINGS
- SWEATER SETS

FELL'S

Men's Apparel Shops
 13 South St. Johns Avenue
 Highland Park
 Phone Highland Park 307
 786 Elm St. - Winnetka
 Phone Winnetka 307

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roach and family of Ravine drive are leaving this week for a three months vacation in Palm Beach, Florida.

Mrs. Otto Petz of McGovern street is entertaining a few friends at dinner this (Thursday) evening in honor of her son's second birthday anniversary.

The Luther league of the Zion Lutheran church will hold its next meeting at the home of Stanley and Mildred Kiehl, 235 Lewellyn avenue, Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Christine Welsh and Mr. Charles G. Elwell were married Friday, January 31, at Waukegan, Ill. Miss Welsh is connected with the Glencoe Beauty shop in Glencoe. Mr. Elwell is of this city.

Mrs. Edwin Johnson is entertaining the board of the Infant Welfare at luncheon today at her home on Central avenue.

Mrs. Carlton Vail has issued invitations to a musicale to be given at her home, 950 E. Lincoln ave., Saturday afternoon, by her sister, Mrs.

Edith Case Pearson, who is a pupil of Mary Peck Thompson. Mrs. Pearson will be assisted by Mrs. Hadasah McGiffin.

Mrs. Kenneth R. Smoot of Beaumont, California is visiting her daughters Mrs. Samuel Holmes and Mrs. E. F. Nolting.

Billy Childs, who graduated this month from Elm Place school left on Tuesday for Ashville, North Carolina, where he entered his freshman year in Ashville school.

George Lyman Jr. was host on Monday afternoon to thirty-five friends at a sleigh-ride party.

Mr. W. Witten and Mr. Clifford Moran are leaving Saturday for Florida, where they will join Mr. Witten, Mrs. Moran and family and Mrs. Alex Smith, who have been sojourning there for the past four weeks. They will all return together by auto about the middle of March. During the Witten's absence, Mr. and Mrs. H. Martin and baby daughter Anne Marie of Deerfield will occupy the Witten home on Laurel avenue.

The Blind Service association meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 12, in the aid room in the Medical Arts building, Chicago. A luncheon and program will take place.

Daniel, Grover, Jr., and Mary Elizabeth Grady entertained thirty-six of their little friends at a sleigh ride party on Saturday afternoon. After a long ride they congregated at the Grady home at 529 Forest avenue where refreshments were served and a general good time was had playing games.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Nolting of Woodland avenue are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter born last Friday at the Highland Park hospital.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and relatives, also Rev. Piepenbrok and the B.P.O.E. lodge, for their kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent bereavement. Fred D. Clavey children.

SPECIAL for FRIDAY and SATURDAY
 Sale starts TOMORROW at 9 a. m.
 A Sensational Savings Opportunity!
 NEW STYLES - NEW COLORS - NEW MATERIALS - NEW DETAILS
 150 NEW SPRING DRESSES

Junior Sizes
 Misses Sizes
 Women's Sizes
 Larger Sizes

$8.95 2 DRESSES for $17

All the New Spring Shades in Chiffons, Crepes, Georgettes and Printed Silks

Regular $16.75, $15, and $13.75 values

A Special Group of Low Priced

DRESSES

$5.95

2 DRESSES for $11

An opportunity to select a New Spring Wardrobe of stunning dresses at a price that is unbelievably low for such quality and smart styling. Our buyers have scoured the fashion marts and have chosen with care these beautiful dresses.

Never Before Such Drastic Reductions

COATS

$5

Regular Values to $39.50

Here is a great opportunity to select a better quality coat—luxuriously fur trimmed—smart and distinctive in style—all the wanted colors, including black—at this drastically reduced price of $5. Sizes 16-18-20.

Mary Ann Frocks

"EXCLUSIVE BUT NOT EXPENSIVE"

19 South St. Johns Avenue

Phone Highland Park 3560