

Gold Star Mothers Offered Free Trip to Europe by Congress

The Congress of the United States has passed an act to enable the mothers and widows of deceased soldiers, sailors and marines of the American forces now interred in the cemeteries of Europe to make a pilgrimage to these cemeteries.

The dates set for these pilgrimages is during the period from May 1, 1930, to October 31, 1930.

It is the duty of the officers of each post to convey this information to the Gold Star mothers and widows who would be entitled to this pilgrimage. All expenses from and to their homes, including an approximate two weeks' stay in Europe, will be paid by the United States.

Mancel Talcott of Waukegan, has complete information on this pilgrimage and will be glad to furnish all data if advised of the names and addresses of those interested in making the trip.

Mr. Talcott, who is graves registrations officer of the American Legion for Lake county, has a complete list of all deceased veterans from Illinois buried in cemeteries in Europe. The list was prepared by the Quartermaster General of the Army at the request of Congressman Carl R. Chindblom. Another list of next of kin is now being prepared.

A teacher sent a small girl for 20 cents' worth of plums, telling her to be sure to pinch one or two to see if they were ripe.

The child returned and said: "Here, teacher, here's your 20 cents. The man wasn't lookin,' so I pinched the lot."

The way the diplomats all over the world are coming out for peace convinces us of the fact that they are all married men.

A cow in a suburb of Boston the other day tried to jump over an automobile. It must have been a Moon.

MOST PEOPLE HAVE A FAMILY CIRCLE

They have relatives living in other places—some near, some far. And they keep family ties alive . . . by telephone. It is very easy to make out-of-town calls and it certainly is a pleasant way to keep in touch with your "folks."

Sons and daughters away at school . . . perhaps an older son working his way to success in another city . . . your own parents, still living in the home of your childhood . . . dear friends moved away . . . all of them are as near as your telephone.

Some persons set aside a certain hour each week for telephone calls like these, which mean so much. From the quiet of their own homes they telephone those they wish might be with them. Try it yourself. You will be repaid for the small cost many times over.

On calls to points approximately 60 to 300 miles distant the station-to-station day rates have been reduced recently in amounts which will mean a saving of more than $5,000,000 to telephone users of the United States.
