were coming along with their hobbies and that he would help them if some difficulty should arise.

Then a motion was made that the meeting be adjourned and all the boys, Frank Belingheri, Raymond Fini, Albert Belingheri, Daniel Baruffi, Nello Mordini, Vincent Ghini, William Bjork and our senior patrol leader, August Baraconi, seconded it.—Lion patrol scribe, Albert Belingheri, Troop 37, Highwood.

New Leaders

Mr. Oscar Mueller, district commissioner for Northbrook has just struck a "gold mine" in a find of Mr. Frank M. Harms as the new scoutmaster for Troop 61. Mr. Harms now 25 years old was a scout himself not so long ago. He has just returned from a three years enlistment in the army with the Third Engineers at Honolulu. He was a sergeant there and brings back many interesting tales to the scouts. All the scouts are happy with leader and look forward to real progress this year.

Talking of "gold mines" another was struck in Glencoe when Keith Roberts who has for a long time been interested in scouting accepted the job as district commissioner for Glencoe. Mr. Roberts has a 12-year old second class scout of his own in Troop 22, Glencoe and another boy well on the way to scouting. It was Mr. Roberts whom you read of, voluntarily surveying the camp site of Makajawan. He has made several trips to the northwoods at his own expense to complete the accurate survey of the wooded land. The council is mighty glad to welcome him to this commission.

Another leader who is rendering a fine service to scouting is Robert Maloney who is now registered as a special deputy commissioner in charge of Winnetka district Drum and Bugle Corps and as a merit badge counsellor in bugling. Many of you heard the corps at the annual banquet on January 24 which was under his leadership. This is a new organization but is progressing rapidly.

Reading Merit Badge

It has been asked that the Reading Merit badge requirements be printed on this page again in as much as the new pamphlet is not yet out and some fellows did not keep the copy of the last print.

To obtain a Merit badge for reading, a scout must:

1. Read at least one book a month for a year after becoming a second class scout including among the 12 books read, three standard works and three on some phase of scouting. Present a list of books read.
2. Present a book review or tell which books he liked best and why.
3. Describe the character he liked best in his fictional reading.
4. If a library is available, have a membership card, which must be presented.
5. List several books he plans to read in the next 12 months.
6. Tell where he gets his books, and present a list of books which he owns.
7. Name the books which his reading, or speaking about, has encouraged other scouts to read. Give the names of boys or boy.

8. Be a subscriber and a reader of a boy's magazine for at least the preceding six months.

9. Tell what other magazines he reads and why.

10. Present a short essay on the value of reading.

New Scouts

Following are a list of new scouts who have recently registered with North Shore Area council signifying that promises to live up to the scout oath and law.

Troop 3, Wilmette—Theron Smith, Martin and Wm. Schara, Wm. Kerr. Troop 34, Highland Park: Thomas Brown, Richard Carr, John Jackson. Troop 48, Lake Forest: James Christiansen, Henry Hansen, Kenneth Kennedy. Troop 77, Mundelein.—Edward Crittenden.
