

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS FEB. 19TH

Meets at Presbyterian Church and Mrs. Paul Douglas to Speak; Memorial

An interesting program has been planned by Mrs. Robert Grinnell, program chairman, for the next meeting of the Highland Park League of Women Voters. Mrs. Paul Douglas, of the Illinois league, is to speak on "Women in Industry."

Mrs. Douglas, formerly State league chairman of the Living Costs committee, spent last year in the economics department at Mt. Holyoke, and is at present state chairman of Women in Industry. She will have much to offer on a subject which should be of vital interest to all women. Miss Ellen Guiney is local chairman of this committee, and will have charge of the program.

The meeting will take place at the Presbyterian church, Wednesday, February 19, at 12:30, and reservations for luncheon should be phoned early to H. P. 1880, or 1541.

Plan Memorial

A fitting memorial for Illinois women who have contributed to its greatness is planned by the League of Women Voters. The plan is part of a nation wide one originated by the National league. Because the league does not wish to honor by words alone, it is raising a memorial fund for each of the names to be placed upon the roll of honor and to use the interest from the permanent fund to perpetuate the ideals of these women, through carrying forward the work of the League of Women Voters. The league is the out growth of the American Woman Suffrage association, and is therefore the logical channel for the fulfillment of the dreams of the pioneers in the suffrage movement, and the later leaders. Mrs. Ralph Peirce of Hinsdale is the chairman of the Illinois Memorial committee. Serving with Mrs. Peirce are Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Evanston, Dr. Mareva Brown, DeKalb; Dr. Grace Dewey, Jacksonville; Mrs. H. E. Easterly, Carbondale; Mrs. Hugh Morrison, Springfield; Mrs. Walter Evans, Mrs. Wm. Lewis, Mrs. George Packard, and Mrs. W. A. Roberts of Chicago. This is a preliminary, advisory committee which is seeking out the names of Illinois women which later will be passed upon by a jury which will decide upon the Illinois honor list.

Two Names Chosen

Two names have already been chosen for the honor roll, and are those of Flora Sylvester Cheney and Katherine Hancock Goode. Mrs. Cheney was the first president of the Illinois league, and both she and Mrs. Goode were civic leaders and among the first women to enter the Illinois legislature. Both women died in office.

Nominations to the national honor roll have already been made by other states and included the names of Susan B. Anthony, Carrie Chapman Catt, Mary Livermore, Maude Wood Park, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw and Lucy Stone.

Jury Gives Marguerite Axt $7,500 Verdict in Damage Suit for Injury

Injuries to Marguerite Axt, of Highwood, who was one of six injured when Louis Mazzetti, of Highwood, smashed into a car in which she was an occupant more than a year ago, on Tuesday convinced a circuit court jury before Judge Edward Shurtleff that she was entitled to $7,500 in the way of damages.

Her counsel, pointed out that for 11 months she spent most of the time in a hospital. Counsel for the defendant, indicated that he would appeal.

The Axt, girl, with seven friends, were pushing an old Ford car on Prairie avenue when it ran out of gasoline. Mazzetti smashed into this and injured six of the young people, it was charged.

He was fined $100 and costs in county court on a charge of assault in the same case, according to the Waukegan Sun.

European Night at Miralago February 19

Wednesday evening, February 19, will be "European Night" at Miralago ballroom, No Man's Land, and on that evening, some one who is present will be awarded a six weeks' trip to Europe in the Big Ten European tour being sponsored by Harve Olson, former captain of Purdue's football team. ### Norma Shearer in "Their Own Desire"

"Their Own Desire" Miss Shearer's newest starring vehicle, which comes to the Alcyon Sunday and Monday is a study of present day social standards. It tells the story of a girl whose happiness came dangerously near frustration through a family scandal. More than half of the picture was photographed outdoors. Lewis Stone, Belle Bennett and Robert Montgomery are included in the cast.

Charlotte Greenwood the original and only Letty of Broadway fame will be seen and heard Tuesday and Wednesday in her uproarious stage farce "So Long Letty." An all star cast is supporting Miss Greenwood including Grant Withers, Bert Roach, Helen Foster and Patsy Ruth Miller.

Three Live Ghosts from the stage play of the same title by Frederick S. Isham is a story of three English soldiers who found themselves pronounced dead upon their return from German prison. Their adventures will keep you guessing and laughing all through the picture which will be shown next Thursday and Friday.

Card Party Monday

Monday evening, February 17, Sheridan Rebekah lodge will hold a card party in Odd Fellows hall. Refreshments will be served and prizes awarded. All members and their friends are invited.

Democratic Candidates For County Officers in Primary Election

With the exception of one office, that of probate judge, a complete ticket was named for the primary election by the Democratic county central committee, at a meeting held Monday in Waukegan. The ticket as arranged includes the following candidates for the several offices to be nominated at the primary election in April:

For state representative — Frank Behringer, Waukegan.

For county judge—Joseph Jadrich, North Chicago.

For county clerk—Joseph Daly, Waukegan.

For probate clerk—Thomas Sexton, Waukegan.

For sheriff—Herbert Yager, Waukegan.

For county superintendent of schools — Mrs. Frances Moody of Highland Park.

For county treasurer—Peter Duffy, Deerfield.

Leaders of the party explained that this list is no bar to other candidates' filing, as the party would make no endorsement until after the primary. In their opinion the outlook for a Democratic year was promising.

DOG REFUGE AND 90 INMATES ARE BURNED

Fire of Possibly Incendiary Origin Destroys Orphans of Storm Kennels

Fire, suspected to have been of incendiary origin, early Tuesday morning destroyed the principal buildings of Irene Castle McLaughlin's stray-dog refuge, known as Orphans of the Storm, two miles west of Deerfield and resulted in the death of about 90 of the dogs housed in the kennels. The loss on the buildings is variously estimated up to $10,000.

Fanned by a brisk wind the fire quickly destroyed the large Kennel building, the office of the institution, a hay barn and a cook house, while departments from Deerfield and Highland Park fought vainly to save them. The home of the caretaker, located but 25 feet from one of the kennels escaped damage.

The belief held by the caretaker, Thomas Webster, and his wife that the telephone wires at the place had been cut and that the fire broke out in at least two of the buildings at the same time caused attaches of the sheriff's office and Deerfield police to scent incendiarism in the fire.

Threats Reported

Reports also received by the police state that Mrs. McLaughlin has been receiving threatening letters which informed her that if she did not abandon the establishment that it would be removed in another manner.

Webster and his wife were awakened early this morning by the crackling of flames. Two of the buildings were burning. Efforts to use the telephone to summon the Deerfield fire department failed and Mrs. Webster ran about two miles to the nearest available.

In the meantime her husband tried to rescue some of the dogs which were trapped in the burning building. He succeeded in carrying but three of the animals out of the buildings. All had been overcome by smoke and heat and lived but a few minutes.

Water Gives Out

The Deerfield department made good headway against the fire as long as the water in one well held out. This was soon exhausted, however, as was the supply of chemical on the fire truck. A crew from the Highland Park department also used its supply of chemicals on the fire.

To Rebuild

Later reports Wednesday were that 83 dogs died in the fire, and that Mrs. McLaughlin planned to rebuild the kennels and would ask an investigation to determine the cause of the fire, which was believed to be of incendiary origin.

Entertain Auxiliary

On Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Oendorf, members of the Deerfield American Legion Auxiliary were delightfully entertained. Mrs. J. W. Strong and Mrs. Philip Scully Jr. were assisting hostesses.

Following the business session the members enjoyed a social hour with games and refreshments.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Minnie Whitcomb, Mrs. J. Strong, Mrs. Ralph Peterson and Mrs. Scheer.
