

Local and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Mayo left on Sunday for a few weeks' visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. William McDonald and two children left yesterday for a West Indies cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hopkins have returned from Cleveland, Ohio, where they spent the past week.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Helen Schneider of Streator, and Mr. Joseph Meredith of LaRose, Ill., which took place last Saturday in Sterling, Ill. Mr. Meredith is a former resident here.

The Junior Star club will meet next Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Elinor Ohrmund, 509 Glencoe avenue. The election of officers will take place at this meeting.

Mrs. Wilson Richardson entertained the members of her bridge club on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. M. Warner of N. Second st., who has been on the sick list for the past week is slowly improving.

Little Harriett Baker will entertain several of her little friends at a Valentine birthday party in commemoration of her fourth birthday tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Archibald Abercromby entertained members of Campbell Chapter Guild yesterday afternoon.

Miss Myra Thomas spent a few days last week in Cleveland, Ohio, visiting her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welch of W. Park avenue are being congratulated on the birth of a girl, February 12 at the Highland Park hospital.

The Lake County Clinic for crippled children will be held on Thursday, Feb. 13, at the Waukegan public library at 1:30 p.m. Dr. B. H. Moore, bone specialist of Chicago, will conduct the clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cole of Ridge road are the happy parents of a boy, born February 8 at the Highland Park hospital.

Miss Anna Bahr is entertaining at dinner at the Green Tea Pot Saturday evening in compliment to Miss Idella Johnson of LaCrosse, Wis., who will be the week-end guest of Mrs. C. F. Grant. Covers will be laid for eight guests. Later bridge will be played. The guests from out of town will be Mrs. Leif Norman of Winnetka, and Miss Alice Joyce of Chicago.

Mrs. Michael Maloney of Fort Sheridan will be hostess tomorrow afternoon to the members of her bridge club. There will be four tables.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Grant will have as their week-end guest Miss Idella Johnson of LaCrosse, Wis.

Mrs. J. W. Simons will entertain the members of her luncheon club today at her home on Burton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pearl are now visiting Mrs. A. G. McPherson in Riverside, Calif., before going on to Los Angeles. Last week they were in Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slayback entertained eight guests at seven o'clock dinner on Friday. Bridge passed the evening hours pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Witt are leaving Sunday for a six weeks' auto trip through the south. They will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reese-man and will visit many friends who are wintering in the south.

Mr. Arthur Koon, who has been spending a week here and in Chicago on business, returned Friday to his home in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Schneider entertained their dinner club on Saturday at their home on Ridgewood drive. The club members are all Chicago people.

Mrs. Edward M. Conrad was hostess to eight out of town guests at a four o'clock dinner on Sunday.

Mrs. S. A. St. Peter is visiting Mrs. John McDougall in St. Petersburg, Florida, this week.

Mrs. J. P. O'Connell left Thursday morning for Pontiac where she was called on account of the illness of her sister.

Mr. Richard Churchill and son Richard Jr. left yesterday morning for a ten days' visit in New Orleans.

Mrs. Frank J. Coghill was a luncheon-bridge hostess yesterday afternoon at her home on South St. Johns avenue. There were twelve guests present.

Mrs. Richard Churchill left yesterday morning for New York City where she will spend ten days visiting her daughter Jane who attends school there.

Sherman Vail Jr. is entertaining at a small dinner party tomorrow evening preceding the Junior Valentine party at the Highland Park club.

Miss Clara Holland, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. St. Peter in St. Petersburg, Florida, is expected to return home with the St. Peters next week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hanson of Oconomowoc were the week-end guests of their relatives here at the Hanson home on South Green Bay road.

Mrs. H. A. Parkin is entertaining at luncheon and bridge today at her home on Laurel avenue.

Mrs. N. G. Lenington was hostess yesterday at her home on North Sheridan road at a one o'clock luncheon followed by bridge.

Mrs. Fred Perryman entertained her luncheon club yesterday afternoon. After the luncheon, cards were played at two tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Denzel left Saturday for a two weeks' trip to Texas.

Mrs. Helen C. Golden and Mrs. E. M. Conrad are entertaining eight guests at luncheon and bridge tomorrow at the Hamilton Club of Chicago at its annual Valentine party. More than four hundred guests have made reservations.

The regular meeting of the Fort Sheridan Woman's club was held Monday night in the chapel. The lecture given by Mrs. Hainline last Wednesday for the benefit of the club was a marked success.

Mrs. F. R. Essig of Fort Wayne, Detroit, Mich., is the guest of Sergeant and Mrs. Annon of Fort Sheridan this week. The Essigs were transferred to Fort Wayne from Fort Sheridan about four months ago.

Mrs. Ray M. Arnold and small son, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Kellogg Speed for the past week, will return this week to their home in Galesburg. Mrs. Arnold is Mrs. Speed's sister.

Are You a Goop?

The Goops they wet their fingers
To turn the leaves of books,
And then they crease the corners
down
And think that no one looks.
They print the marks of dirty hands,

WHERE BEAUTY AND DEPENDABILITY REIGN

When you call a servant you expect immediate attention. You get the same individual service and attention when you call us for your dry cleaning needs.

Our help knows what our customers demand and take pride in their finished product.

Let us serve you.

JOHN ZENGELER
INC.
Cleaners of Distinction

25 N. Sheridan Road

Phone Highland Park 2801