Tiger Hunting Picture Saturday at Deerpath; Fine Program for Week

The last week's notable program at the Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, brought big audiences and won widespread favorable comment, and Manager Emma promises another splendid array of features for the ensuing week, beginning Saturday, matinee and evening with "Huting Tigers in India" an epic talking and synchronized sound picture taken under the auspices of the American Museum of Natural History, telling the screen narrative of the A. S. Vernay expedition sent out by the museum. It is accurate, thrilling, and instructive picture of wild life in the jungles of India, and Commander Dyott's voice in explanation of all scenes and situations makes it a stirring and vivid story.

Sunday, February 16, continuous 2 to 11 p. m., "Behind the Makeup," with Hal Shelby, William Powell, Fay Wray in an all-talking, singing picture.

Monday and Tuesday, February 17 and 18, "Their Own Desire," with Norma Shearer, Lewis Stone, Belle Bennett and Robert Montgomery, a vital drama of the children of divorce, with the class of "Mrs. Cheney" and the human appeal of "His Secretary".

Wednesday and Thursday, February 19 and 20, Alice White, in "The Girl from Woolworth's" an all-talking singing and dancing feature.

Friday and Saturday, February 21 and 22, George Arlis, famous stage star in his greatest success, "Disraeli" reproduced on the screen with every detail of voice, sound and scenic accessories preserved. This is everywhere regarded as one of the finest screen dramas ever produced, and Arlis' fame as an actor wins it wide popularity. He is supported by a notable cast, including his wife, Florence Arlis.

Coming Sunday, February 23, Bradley Kincaid, the Kentucky mountain boy with his famous 'horn' dog guitar, from WLS radio station, Chicago.

N. S. Congregation Israel
Rabbi Louis J. Kopald.
"Religions With and Without Church and God."
"The Churchless Religion of Lincoln."
"The Conventional Religion of Washington."
"The Godless Religion of Humanism."

Which?
The above is the title of the address which Rabbi Louis J. Kopald will deliver at North Shore Congregation Israel at Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Is Humanism a religion toward which the intelligent modern is necessarily going?

Can Humanism take the place of Christianity and Judaism for the modern Christian and Jew?

The Rabbi will attempt to evaluate Humanism in comparison with the churchless religion of Lincoln and the traditional religion of Washington.

The general public is cordially welcomed.
