

Among the Local Churches

Bethany Evangelical Church

H. F. Siemsen, Pastor
A. S. Haag, Asst. Pastor

The second of the series of happy Sunday evening services was well attended, and proved a blessing to all. The Gospel Four of Moody Bible institute brought their splendid messages in song, and the pastor spoke on "A Preserving Life." These services are proving our theory that Sunday evening may be made a happy evening if we will but avail ourselves of the opportunities for worship and participation. We cordially invite the whole community to these special evening services.

The W. M. S. of the Bethany church met at the home of Mrs. O. K. Wessling of 441 Glencoe avenue, on Thursday afternoon.

The Young People's Missionary circle will meet at the church on Friday night at 7:45, rather than on Monday night as per schedule.

Next Sunday night, Rev. Wm. O. Ruby, secretary of Evangelism of the Presbyterian church of Chicago, will be the speaker at the "Happy Sunday Evening Service." There will also be special music, and good congregational singing.

On Sunday, February 23, at 4:30, the regular Vesper Service. This will be a special musical service, a usual feature of these services.

The second of the series of the meetings of the Community Leadership Training course at the Presbyterian church was well attended. We are glad that there are so many of our church school leaders enrolled. Though you have not enrolled, you may still do so; or if that is impracticable you may visit any of the classes.

Last Sunday was a great day at St. Paul's church. Weather conditions were ideal. The Sunday school attendance was above normal and the attendance at the worship service was the best we have had for a long, long time. We invite you to come again next Sunday. Bring your friends and worship with us. The mixed choir will furnish the special music.

Sunday evening the pastor will begin his special lecture course. This course is especially for those who wish to unite with the church but have had no previous instruction on the fundamental teachings of the Christian church. The invitation however is extended to everybody. Many have already expressed their desire to attend. We sincerely hope that many others will avail themselves of this opportunity. The lecture will begin 7:30 o'clock.

The Tri C society will be entertained at a Valentine social Wednesday, February 19, at the Y.W.C.A. Highland Park, with Miss Alice Ulfers as hostess.
