SENIOR PLAY CAST IS WORKING RAPIDLY

The cast of "Miss Lulu Bett" to be given at the Deerfield-Shields high school has been definitely decided upon, and rehearsals have started in interest.

Since these are the last two weeks before the performance, lines are being learned quickly so that there will be plenty of time in which to put on the finishing touches. The understudies are helping at rehearsals with lines and props.

Lydia Simpson has been chosen as Diana, and Dorothy Campbell will be the understudy. Lydia is a member of Miss Martin's home room, a member of D. G. A., and helped at Christmas time with the welfare work of the Girl's club.

Margaret Kerr, who plays the leading role, Miss Lulu Bett, is a member of Miss Knox's home room, a member of the senior drama class and D. G. A., and secretary of the Girl's club.

Peggy Crawford, Monona, is in Miss Bredin's home room. She is vice-president of the Girl's club, a councilor, and member of D. G. A.

Dorothy Burris, Ina, is also a member of Miss Bredin's home room. She is a member of D. G. A. and was on the College Night committee.

Betty Ball, who plays Grandma Bett, is a member of Miss Bredin's home room, news editor of the Shoreline, and was assistant director of "The Poor Little Rich Girl."

Mr. Kendig's home room claims John Snite (Ninian) and Robert Tucker (Neil Cornish). John is president of the Boy's club and a councilor. Robert is also a councilor, a member of the track team, and was vice-president of the junior class last year.

John Horn, of Mr. Schneider's home room, is the Dwight of the play. He is on the swimming team.

Harrison McKillip, Bobby, is a member of Mr. Wolter's home room, and on the track team.
