

D. A. R. Better Films Committee Announces List; Chapter Meeting

The Better Films committee of the D. A. R. bespeaks interest in good movies. Its latest announcement follows:

We are sure that all the mothers who heard the talk by Mr. W. L. Green, editor-in-chief of the "Educational Screen" are more anxious than ever to safeguard the ideals of their children. Supervision of the list of films is the way mothers can help their children in the selection of beneficial movies.

Every week at local or neighboring theatres we find some commendable films offered:

"Rio Rita." Best effort to date at transferring a musical comedy from stage to screen. Amusing for all ages.

"Three Live Ghosts." Notable for its character acting. Good for all ages.

"Burning Up." Class 2. Picture about an auto race. Exciting entertainment for those who like thrills. Adults.

"The Virginian." Excellent. Characters are typical of pioneer days when the real empire builders held their standards, fought lawlessness and were respected even by those whom they punished. A picture for the whole family.

"Disraeli." A film classic is to be shown in Highland Park the last of February.

Those who are anxious to have the best films brought to our local theatres can help to encourage the Better Films Movement by attending when such opportunities offer themselves.

The North Shore chapter is meeting today at the home of Mrs. Carleton Harkness, and Brigadier General Conrad is the speaker, his subject being "George Washington and National Defense." Miss Edith Phillips will read.

Miss Beryl Holland is spending this week in River Forest as the guest of Miss Virginia Porter.

Interesting Lecture Feb. 5 by Mrs. Hainline

The lecture delivered by Mrs. Grace Hainline, under the auspices of the Fort Sheridan Woman's club, on "Life in Alaska," Wednesday, February 5, was a decided success.

Mrs. Hainline lived in Northern Canada and Alaska, north of the Arctic circle, for 13 years, and spoke of her experiences and of life there as she saw it.

She has an easy delivery and charming personality on the platform. Pathos and humor were interspersed with material of undoubted educational value.

She has a knack of transporting her hearers to the frozen North and made several of the audience, who were old sourdoughs and had spent years in Alaska, homesick.

The lecture was well attended and the lecturer was warmly congratulated by many who attended.

Two vocal selections were rendered by Mr. Daniel Hart of Lake Forest college.

Women's Organizations in County Supporting Jury Service Measure

Plans are being made by woman's organizations of the county for a general organization to promote the approval of the measure providing for the legalizing of women jurors in the state when the issue comes up for a referendum at the polls on November 4.

Led by the county organization of the League of Women Voters, all of the women organizations in Lake county will be banded, it is expected, into a strong and effective force for the dissemination of information as to the merit of the plan and will likewise seek to win the approval of the measure on the part of all voters.

Preliminary plans for the campaign are now being made. It will grow in intensity as the months pass and will be marked by a general rally to be held in September.

Among the state organizations which have affiliated groups in this county that will take part in the campaign, are: League of Woman Voters, W. C. T. U., Illinois Federation of Woman's clubs, Parent-Teachers association, Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Woman's clubs, Woman City Club of Chicago, the National Council of Jewish Women and others.
