

Rome Wasn't Built in a Day

The old saying: "Rome wasn't build in a day" is true and it is equally true of the great fortunes. These fortunes were started by some one in a small way and he or she kept adding to them until they grew and grew to wonderful sizes.

While all of us cannot expect to have great fortunes we can get started and when we kept an account growing and growing each year it will take care of us when we need help. Come in and get started in our savings department. We will welcome you and pay you interest.
