The marriage of Miss Dorothy Reay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mason Reay, and James Arthur Younglove, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Clute Younglove of Glencoe, took place Saturday evening at eight-thirty o'clock at the Trinity Episcopal church. Miss Reay's bridal gown was of ivory satin made on long lines with tiered skirt and fashioned with a court train. Her veil was of silk tulle bordered in rose point lace, and she carried a sheath of white gardenias. Mrs. James A. Roberts Jr., matron of honor, and Miss Irvin Reay maid of honor, wore blue lace and tulle gowns in the pastel shade with blue caps to match. The bridesmaids, Miss Jean Adams, Miss Virginia Richey and the Misses Shirley and Nancy Reay were gowned in pink and green. They all carried spring flowers. Gilbert Younglove served his brother as best man, and the ushers were Robert Slater, Edwin M. Ashcraft III, Robert E. Smith Jr., Gilbert Robinson and Roslyn Beatty. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Younglove sailed yesterday from New York on the Fort St. George for a month's honeymoon in Bermuda. After March 18 they will make their home at 813 Forest avenue, Evanston.
