MISS LULU BETT TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY

Play to Start at 8:15 P. M. Friday; Orchestra to Play Between Acts

"Miss Lulu Bett," the Deerfield-Shields Senior class play, will be given at 8:15 tomorrow night, Friday, Feb. 21, in the high school auditorium.

Here Is Cast

The title role is taken by a petite girl with dark curly hair—Margaret Kerr. Her sister is played by a blonde, Dorothy Burris. The brother-in-law, an impressive-looking individual, very domineering, is played by John Horn. Lulu's naughty niece, who has a faculty for getting in people's way, is taken by our ex-chief counselor, Peggy Crawford. The "Young lady niece" is played by another blond—even more blond than Dorothy—Lydia Simpson.

John Snite plays Ninian Deacon, the man-of-the-world, while Robert Tucker plays the blundering Neil Cornish. Harrison McKillip plays bashful Bobby. Lastly, Betty Ball plays the old grandmother.

Miss Comer is, of course, directing this play. Her staff consists of Henrietta Jenkins, Louise Smith, Eunice Hall, Helen Hitchcock, Dorothy Campbell, Tom Moore, John Hubley, William Ellis, and Richard Dewey. These people help with lines, props, characterizations, and costumes. They also serve as understudies to the members of the cast.

Committees Working

Dorothy Scharie will have charge of make-up at rehearsals, and Virginia Jeffries will take charge the night of the performance. The make-up committee has the following members: Norah Fink, Mildred Attridge, Jean Williams, Frances Rogalski, and Tom Moore.

Costumes are in charge of Norah Fink and Dorothy Maiman, while Virginia Grant is chairman of the props committee, which is composed of: Virginia Engles, Eunice Hall, Virginia Jeffries, Dorothy Campbell, Evelyn Bakke, John Hubley, and Bill Ellis.

Leonard Keaster is again the stage manager, with the following for his crew: Clyde Adair, Edward Niemeyer, Allison Martin, Fred Drake, man, Robert Skidmore, and Raymond Phillips.

Lighting will be handled by Walter Lundell, Leslie Southerton, Kenneth Masonic, Tom Wade, and Oscar Gilenberg.

The business end is under Mr. Peers' direction, with Marion Weisenberger and Robert Graham as house managers. Melbourne Beers will be in the box-office.

Orchestra to Play

The orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Mannings, will play the following numbers before the performance and between the acts:

- March - Hallaender
Celebrated Minute from First Symphony - Valensin
Waltz - Bennett
Overture Medley American Home Songs - Ascher

SEASON'S LAST GAME AT EVANSTON FEB. 28

Having already beaten the Evanston team on their own floor, Deerfield-Shields lights and heavies will invade the Evanston team's gym Friday, Feb. 28, to play the last basketball game of the year.

Everyone who was present at the Evanston game here recently will remember how thrilling they were. Both teams were in there fighting all the time. They were anyone's games until the gun sounded.

CHILD STUDY GROUP NOW ORGANIZED IN LAKE BLUFF

Lake Bluff has now organized a child study group with about fifteen members. These members meet on Tuesday nights at eight o'clock in the Lake Bluff grammar school.

Child study groups have been organized in Highland Park, Ravinia, Deerfield, and Lake Forest for the purpose of studying problems that arise during the adolescence period of a child. Lake Bluff is the latest to join.

NO SCHOOL MONDAY; TEACHERS TO VISIT

In order that the Deerfield-Shields, teachers may study other schools to assist them in their curriculum reconstruction work, there will be no school next Monday, Feb. 24.

"When are Joan and Edward to be married?"

"Never, I'm afraid."

"Why, how's that?"

"Well, she won't marry him until he pays his debts and he can't pay his debts until she marries him."
