

The Highland Park Press

Be A Thoroughbred

OF ALL HUMAN QUALITIES that have lit up this earth, I count this, of being a thoroughbred, the happiest.

It has saved more souls than penance and punishment, it has rescued more business enterprises than shrewdness, it has won more battles and more games, and altogether loosed more hard knots in the tangled skein of destiny than any other virtue.

Most people are quitters. They reach the limit. They are familiar with the last straw.

But the hundredth man is a thoroughbred. You cannot corner him. He will not give up. He cannot find "fail" in his lexicon. He has never learned to whine.

DR. FRANK CRANE

Thursday, February 27, 1930 Price 5c