Spice, Variety, Beauty Mark Deerpath Theatre Program Next Week

Exhilarating comedy, thrilling adventure and heart-gripping romance unite in a variety of film successes to be shown at the Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, during the next week, and provide one of the most promising and attractive programs for that period.

Friday, Feb. 28, last showing of "Three Live Ghosts," with Joan Bennett, Robert Montgomery and Claude Ailister in one of the most hilarious comedies of the screen.

Saturday, March 1, "Romance of the Rio Grande," all-talking, singing feature with Warner Baxter, Tony Moreno, Mary Duncan; a picture that rivals "Rio Rita."

Sunday and Monday, March 2 and 3, "Flight," the screen epic of the air, in which Jack Holt and Ralph Graves, the pals of "Submarine," take to the air and give a great performance in a drama of glorious adventure in the sky, made with the full co-operation of the U. S. Marine corps.

Tuesday and Wednesday, March 4 and 5, William Haynes, in "Navy Blues," another all-talking success.

Thursday and Friday, Feb. 6 and 7, Harold Lloyd in "Welcome Danger," his first all-talking picture. You will get a thrill a minute out of this one.

Sunday, Feb. 8, Edward Everett Horton and Patsy Ruth Miller in "The Aviator." It's a scream, according to advance reports, and said to be funnier than "The Hottentot," a real riot of fun.

All of these features are talking pictures, and at each performance are supplemented by the best news, comedy and specialties obtainable.

Memorial Program

Radio listeners enjoyed a rare treat last Saturday morning in the broadcast of the program given in Memorial Continental hall in honor of George Washington. It was participated in by the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Sons of the Revolution, and the Children of the American Revolution. Senator Fess of Ohio was the principal speaker, and he told of the wonderful celebration to be held in 1932 the 200th anniversary of the birth of Washington.

Better Films Report

In reviewing the programs of local theatres, the Better Films committee suggests the following films among the best of several outstanding attractions.

"Burning Up"—About an auto racer, who discovers he is involved in dishonest betting and is threatened by death if he wins the race. Adults.

"Three Live Ghosts"—Three soldiers supposedly killed in the great war, return in anything but triumph. Laughable farce comedy. Good for the family.

"Is Everybody Happy?"—Clean, amusing and unobjectionable, save for its obvious effort to glorify jazz as America's true music.

"It's a Great Life"—Clean, amusing and wholesome picture with moments of genuine human appeal as well as almost continuous fun. Good for all ages.

"Disraeli"—A brilliant portrayal of England's great statesman. Mature for children, but the best film attraction for youths and adults.

"Hunting Tigers in India"—Another most excellent film for all members of the family. Entertaining as well as educational.

"Romance of the Rio Grande"—Colorful human and dramatic story of a proud Spanish family on their four hundred year old estate across the Mexican border. Good for the whole family.
