Sleeplessness Due to Stock Market Losses Blamed for Car Crash

Sleep, that followed many sleepless nights directly due to heavy losses in the stock market last fall, last Wednesday" afternoon ended in an accident on Green Bay road near Yorkhouse church in which two people were injured, according to Deputy Sheriff Charles Krueger.

Geerge Howe, 58, of Niles Center, the driver of the car, told the deputy that he had lost so heavily on the market that it had preyed on his mind with the result that he lost many hours of sleep. As a result he dozed away about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon as he drove north. With him was his wife. Both ribs and severe cuts and bruises. Both were removed to the Victory Memorial hospital for treatment.

Howe, who was driving to Wauwatosa to visit a son, became drowsy after he passed Grand avenue. He continued to drive, however, believing that he would revive. Instead, after passing Yourhouse road he fell asleep. The car followed the ditch for more than 300 feet and then crashed into the culvert.

States Highway Patrolmen Frank Reardon and Walter Repkow arrived at the scene of the accident shortly after it occurred and arranged for the removal of the two to the hospital. The machine which was badly damaged, was brought to a local gar-

DEERFIELD SWIMMERS PLACE AT WAUKEGAN

Phil Anderson and Eddie Loewenstein of Deerfield-Shields high school placed first and third respectively in their events at the Waukegan invitation meet.

Eddie swam a beautiful race to take a third against some of the best swimmers on the North Shore. Eddie specializes in the 100-yard breaststroke.

Phil won the 100-yard backstroke without much trouble. He also qualified for the 100-yard free style, but in the preceding event he wrenched a chest muscle and was unable to enter it.

Oak Park won the meet with Evanston runner-up. Deerfield-Shields came in fifth place. Both Eddie and Phil are expecting to do better in the Inter-Suburban meet at New Trier next Wednesday.

Delinquency on the part of hundreds of citizens of Waukegan in the payment of their water rents may result in the failure of the city to meet payment of the principal and interest on the new water pumping and filtration system, it was announced by Commissioner Al Carney last week.

The entire list of officers of the Condell Memorial hospital in Libertyville were re-elected at the annual meeting. Paul Ray was named president. Others elected were F. H. Noble, vice president, M. J. Casey, secretary and Joseph Reuse, treas-
