

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

DEERFIELD NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor
Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill. Tel. Deerfield 153-R

Delightful Program Given at Colonial Tea

The Colonial Tea, which is an annual event given by officers and teachers of the Presbyterian church school and which is the outstanding social event in the church school social calendar was held on Friday afternoon.

Miss Irene Rockenbach had charge of the program and lead in the games.

The following program was thoroughly enjoyed:

- Piano Solo—National Emblem March Mrs. C. G. Pettis
- Vocal Duet—The Sweetest Story Ever Told Mrs. F. Peterson and Mrs. E. H. Selig
- Violin Solo—Sleepy Hollow Tune Miss Madge McGinnis, accompanied at the piano by her mother, Mrs. J. W. McGinnis.
- Reading—"The Pudding" Mrs. Chester Wessling
- Piano Solo—American Patrol Mrs. Pettis
- Vocal Solo—"Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" Mrs. F. P. Browning
- Violin Solo—Neapolitan Nights Miss McGinnis
- Group singing—America the Beautiful

Hostess including Mmes. Klug, Browning, C. E. Huhn, Ralph Peterson and R. Dobbins presided at tea tables decorated in bright red, white and blue of Old Glory providing a dashing and patriotic note appropriate for the occasion.

St. Paul's Evangelical Church

F. G. Piepenbrok, Pastor
Church school at 9:15 a. m.
Worship service at 10:30 a. m.
Lecture Sunday, evening at 7:30.
Choir Friday, 7:45 p. m.
Confirmation Saturday, 9:00 a. m.
It was with great difficulty that the pastor conducted last Sunday's service on account of an attack of laryngitis. The special lecture for the evening had to be postponed. This lecture on the question, "Is God a Good God?", will be given Sunday evening, March 2nd. We are looking forward to a good attendance. Do not forget to bring your question for the question box.

Sunday, March 9th, we will begin our illustrated Lenten services on the "Five Crises in the Life of Jesus" and "The Greatest Question in the World." Detailed announcements concerning these Lenten services will appear in the March issue of the St. Paul's Herald.

Our newly organized mixed choir will again furnish the music for the Sunday morning worship service.
Thursday, March 5th, the St. Paul's Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Labahn, Central avenue.

Arthur Mentzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Mentzer celebrated his twelfth birthday anniversary on Saturday afternoon.

Card Party Friday Receives Fine Response

It was a great satisfaction to the ladies of the Altar and Rosary society of the Holy Cross church to have such a large attendance and receive such wonderful response not only from the Deerfield people but also surrounding towns at their card party held on Friday evening in the parish hall.

Ideal weather prevailed, which lent much to the success of the affair.

Mrs. L. Gloden was chairman of committee and was ably assisted by a large group of enthusiastic women. There were 32 tables of bridge, five hundred, bunco and euchre.

The door prizes a ham donated by Mr. Cullen of Deerfield Capital market was won by Mr. Otto Trute and the candy donated by Mr. J. C. Antes was won by Mr. George Karch, the bacon donated by Mr. S. Shapiro went to Mr. Eugene Ender and a ham donated by Deerfield Meat Market was given to Mr. Amendt.

The officers of the society of which Mrs. Eugene Ender is president will be in charge of the next party and is scheduled for Monday evening, March 17.

Illustrated Lecture to Be Given Tuesday

Rev. M. G. Geil will give an illustrated lecture on his travels through Palestine at a meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Bungalow church to be held on Tuesday evening, March 4, at 8 o'clock. Members of the church and their friends are cordially invited to attend this lecture which promises to be most interesting.

Dr. Ralph W. Owens Dies in Chicago

Dr. Ralph W. Owens who has given a number of interesting lectures in the Deerfield Presbyterian church died at Presbyterian hospital on Friday. He was 39 years old and suffered a stroke recently which carried his death on Friday. Services were held on Saturday in Chicago and burial was in his birthplace in Ohio.

Doughnut Sale

On Thursday, February 27, the W. M. S. of the Bungalow church will hold a doughnut sale and orders may be phoned to Mrs. John L. Vetter, 366.

Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Hoover and children spent the week-end with Mr. Hoover's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hoover at Milwaukee, Wis.

Deerfield Garden Club Has Delightful Meet

Mrs. A. R. Warner was hostess to the Garden club of Deerfield at her home last Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. W. Geary, chairman of the Educational committee of the Garden Club of Illinois also member of the Deerfield club gave a very instructive and interesting talk on collected information.

Especially interesting was a description of the Magnolia gardens at Charleston, S. C., also an article describing the Singing Tower and Bird sanctuary at Mountain Lake, Florida. Mrs. F. D. Burroughs told of her recent visit to the tower a superbly beautiful spot created by Edward W. Bok to provide a retreat of natural beauty for the human of refuge for birds and a place for the study of bird life.

Mrs. R. S. Johnson the clubs general chairman of the Central States Garden and Flower show to be held at the Chicago Stadium April 5 to 13 told of the various committees plans for the show.

Tickets for the show are procurable now and can be purchased from Mrs. Irving Brand at a reduced rate until March 31.

It is sincerely hoped that Deerfield residents will buy their tickets through the Deerfield Garden club.

Deerfield Civic Calendar

Monday, March 3, Psychology class of Deerfield Grammar school 7:30 o'clock.

Tuesday, March 4, basketball game Deerfield Grammar school, St. Pauls vs. Niles Center, 8 o'clock.

W. M. S. of Bungalow church meet at church 8 o'clock, Rev. M. G. Geil to give illustrated lecture.

Wednesday, March 5, Lions club meeting 12:30 o'clock.

Thursday, March 6, basketball game, Deerfield Grammar school, 8 o'clock. Bungalow church team vs. Lake Forest college Ladies Aid society of St. Paul's church met with Mrs. F. J. Labahn, Central avenue, 2 o'clock.

Dorcas society meeting Presbyterian church 2 o'clock.

O. E. S. chapter meeting, Masonic temple, 8 o'clock.

Friday, March 7, Boy Scout meeting.

Altar and Rosary society meeting at Holy Cross church, 8 o'clock.

Entertain Teachers

At the home of Mrs. Lewis Ashman on Saturday, February 22, the officers of the Deerfield P. T. A. were hostesses at a delightful bridge luncheon in compliment to the teachers of both the Deerfield and Wilmot schools.

Prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. D. W. Meyer, Mrs. C. E. Bates and Miss Dorothy Lidgerwood.

Play Highwood Feb. 27
The basketball team of the Bungalow church will play Highwood A. C. at the Deerfield Grammar school on Thursday evening February 27 at 8 o'clock.

Deerfield Locals

Mrs. Harry Wing and daughter Shirley are planning to leave next Sunday to visit relatives in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lenke and Mrs. Mary Lee of Waukegan visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Peterson, Sunday. Mr. Peterson accompanied them to their home where he will spend several days.

Mr. Art Maw is convalescing from a recent operation at his home on Deerfield avenue.

Jessie Page, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page of Chestnut street who has been seriously ill for the past week is recovering.

Mrs. B. H. Kress returned home on Thursday after spending the past three weeks with relatives in Minneapolis, Minn., and Fargo, N. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge of Maywood were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Miller on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Bendt were hosts at a party at their home on Saturday evening.

The Ladies Aid society of St. Pauls Evangelical church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. F. J. Labahn on Thursday afternoon, March 6, with Mrs. F. Horenberger and Mrs. C. Koebelin, assisting hostesses. Mrs. C. C. Kapschull will have charge of the program.

Misses Jane and Martha Karch spent the week-end with their sister Mrs. F. Saeman at Cross Plaines, Wisconsin.

Mrs. B. J. Dickens and Miss Elsie Tate of Chicago visited Mrs. J. A. Reichelt Jr. Sunday.

Mr. Elmer Clavey returned to his home on Monday after spending the past month in Lakeland, Fla.

Mrs. Alvin W. Knaak entertained in compliment to Mrs. J. R. Notz on Monday evening.

Mrs. Harold Youngs was hostess to her Sewing club at her home on Todd court, Tuesday evening.

The Independent Social club postponed their meeting, which was to be held at the home of Mrs. Ed. Long on Tuesday to Wednesday on account of the funeral of one who was a friend of many of the members, Mrs. E. Lemm.

The Dorcas society will hold their annual meeting on Thursday afternoon, March 6, at the Presbyterian church.

On Thursday evening, February 21, the men of the Presbyterian church were entertained at a dinner at the church. The dinner was served by Circle No. II of the Dorcas society of which Mrs. T. P. Browning is chairman.

The Happy Four of Deerfield will sponsor a dance in the Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, March 1.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. C. Mentzer entertained the R. N. A. committee who will serve on the refreshment committee at the birthday celebration of the camp to be observed on Thursday evening, Feb. 27.