Central States Garden Show in April to Have National Scope, Report

With entries from 14 states already made, the Central States Garden and Flower Show set for April 5 to 13 at the Chicago Stadium will be national in scope.

California, Colorado, New Mexico, Wisconsin, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New York and Massachusetts exhibitors will be represented here with their finest floral products.

Chicago used to be famous as the "Garden City" and as this region has more acreage under glass than any other in the world from which flowers are sent all over the country and Canada, the Chicago metropolitan area is still the garden spot of the

Among the largest exhibitors in the show will be the West Park, Lincoln and South Park organizations. The Garden Club of Illinois has 87. member clubs, which are entered in 10 classes. The State Agricultural college at Urbana will also be represented. Indiana exhibits will be featured with roses and carnations. Alpine plants and flowers are a specialty from Michigan growers and will be exhibited in the premium

Colorado, famous for its carnations and ferns will have special exhibits in these groups, while from New York state will come one of the outstanding gardens in the show.

A collective exhibit prepared by the leading growers in three or four of its largest growing centers will represent the California exhibitors. A large California garden also will be shown. Flowers from beyond the Rockies will be brought to the show daily by aeroplane.

Ohio is a great growing center for perennials and outdoor plants and flowers, which will dominate the exhibits from this state. A large sweet pea display will be among the numbers sent in from Pennsylvania. New Shop H. P. 1404 Res. H. P. 489-1842 Mexico will be represented by a large collection of desert plants, including many rare members of the cactus family.

Plumber Files Suit For Foreclosure on Waukegan City Hall

William E. Green of Waukegan, head of plumbing concern bearing his name, last week filed a bill to foreclose a mechanic's lien on the Waukegan city hall. There are several liens against the building and all were brought by contractors who had a part in the remodeling of the struc-

Green's claim is based on bills sent the city for material and labor covering the plumbing in the structure for the amount of $4,670. The last till was for $495 and this final work was completed, it was pointed out.

Besides the city the members of the Higley family was named with the bill explaining that they conveyed the property to the city July 11,

Green took the plumbing from the Waukegan Plumbing and Supply on a sub-contract. The change was made when labor disputes between the unions and the city arose.
