

Oak Terrace News

The sixth, seventh, and eighth grades of the Oak Terrace school have been busy for the last month making posters for the operetta which is to be held at the Oak Terrace school the latter part of March or the first part of April. The operetta promises to be very interesting. More news of the operetta will be given to the public later. Watch for it!—Rena Piazz.

Boy Scouts

Troop 37 held its meeting February 27 at the Oak Terrace school. They planned to go on a five-mile hike so as to give the tenderfoots a chance to pass the out-door tests for a second class badge. These tests are scout's pace, cooking, tracking, and fire building. They will leave the Oak Terrace school at one-thirty in the afternoon.

Troop 37 will give a play on March 17, at the Oak Terrace school, entitled "Coming Clean." This play of three acts is about a patrol on a hike. The cast of characters is as follows:

Frederick Shyler Thomas—Daniel Baruffi; Drowsy—Raymond Fini; Izyable—Albert Belingheri; Mr. Bailey—August Baracani; Dick—Anker Jeppesen; Annie—Artemus Ashurst; Uncle Nick—Jacob Jeppesen; Speed—John Gibbson.

The play promises to be very entertaining.

Glee Club

The Glee club held its regular meeting Tuesday, March 4, in the kindergarten rooms at the Oak Terrace school. The officers told the members of a plan they had so as to induce girls to attend the meetings regularly. They will present each girl with a Glee club pin in June provided they have not missed more than three meetings.

The secretary-treasurer has made an interesting code for the girls. This code spells Glee club. A copy of this code was given to each member who promised to obey it faithfully.

Makio Girl Reserves

The Makio Girl Reserves held their regular meeting Friday, Feb. 28. Our adviser, Miss de Hartog, was not able to be present at this meeting, so we had an informal meeting. We planned and suggested different things for the mothers and Daughters banquet which is to be given March 21.

It was getting rather late so we adjourned by singing our ring song.
Frieda Glass.

Basketball

The Oak Terrace basketball teams have been practicing regularly to be in good shape for the tournament games. Last Saturday the Oak Terrace lights played the Ravinia lights. This was the first game Oak Terrace played in the tournament. Oak Terrace won with a score of 15 to 3.

A bull on a rampage crashed thru the public buildings in one of Spain's cities the other day and created a furor. It has been some time since the bulls in Wall Street have gone on a rampage.

Our idea of the zero point in usefulness is to be a backseat driver in an airplane.

Anyhow let's hope our delegates don't come back from London singing something like the "Navy Blues."
