If you as a small car owner wish that you might sit at the wheel of a Cadillac or La Salle, consider this—the man you envy may be paying no more than you for his motor transportation.

It is true that his monthly payments are slightly higher than yours. And he pays $15 or $20 more in a year for his gasoline and oil.

But his service expense is astonishingly low.

And the major repairs, overhauling and replacements that must begin in some cars at 20,000 to 25,000 miles need not be made in a Cadillac or La Salle until you have rolled up 75,000 to 100,000. Or perhaps never.

Come in. Let us give you the facts regarding convenient purchase and low cost operation of these splendid cars.
