

CIRCUIT THEATRE TO GIVE PLAY MARCH 21

In Highland Park Woman's Club; "Hay Fever" by Noel Coward is Chosen

The Circuit Theatre association of the north shore, formerly the North Shore Theatre guild, wishes to remind its subscribers and friends that Friday, March 21, a Circuit theatre company directed by Hope Summers will present Noel Coward's comedy, "Hay Fever," in the Highland Park Woman's club. Reserved seats for the performance can be obtained at Pease Pharmacy, where they can be purchased as well as secured in exchange for regular subscriber' tickets.

"Hay Fever," as has been announced, is one of Noel Coward's funniest plays. It is the story of a memorable week-end in the very Bohemian Bliss household, a week-end punctuated by four unexpected guests for whose convenience there is but one guest-chamber. The play has had successful production both in London and New York, but it has never been done in Chicago.

Nine New Actors

In adherence to one of its tenets, the Circuit theatre is presenting in this play a cast of nine amateurs of whom but one has played before with the organization. James Witherell of Evanston will be remembered in the leading roles of "The Detour" and "The Romantic Age," and in this

Many Attend Opening of Savoy Food Mart

The Savoy Food Mart opened last Saturday in the new Schneider-Huntley building — and a large crowd turned out for the event. This store is the last word in modern equipment and arrangement. Large glass display cases protect the various perishable foods—while there is plenty of floor space in which to move around comfortably. Intermission

Darius Milhaud—Rag Caprice.

Henry Cowell — The Banshee for string piano.

Igor Strawnisky—Weissshaus-Dance of Adolescence from "Le Sacre du Printemps."

Imre Weissshaus — Three piano pieces (1) prelude, (2) sostenuto (3) poco lento.

Zoltan Kodaly—Nos. 7 and 8 from Opus 3.

Bela Bartok—9 pieces from "For Children."

Zoltan Kodaly—Nos. 7 and 8 from Opus 3.

Imre Weissshaus—three piano pieces (1) prelude; (2) sostenuto (3) poco lento.

Weissshaus is one of the foremost of the younger group of composers and is also a thoughtful, sensitive, highly-skilled interpreter of modern music. Arthur A. Hardcastle, in the Palo Alto tunes, makes this comment:

"The playing of Weissahus is fresh and vigorous and stands out as a new experience from the everlasting sameness of the usual concert pianist. The message of music in his case, goes far deeper than merely trying to please. It was extremely interesting to hear what the Hungarian modernists are doing musically, and particularly to have this music presented by one of them, and that one with the talent of Imre Weissshaus."

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Ralph Fletcher Seymour, 225 Cary avenue, Ravinia. Tel. H. P. 606 or at the door before the concert.

Idol of Radio Here in First Feature Film

Rudy Vallee's first great feature picture, "The Vagabond Lover," will introduce the wonder singer of radio to his army of admirers here at the Aleyon theatre next week.

Crooning four delightful new songs, Vallee makes his bow in a lavish production created by Radio Pictures under the direction of Marshall Neilan. With him are the Connecticut Yankee the seven boys as familiar to Radio audiences as Rudy himself.

It is to Sally Glane, Radio Pictures' charming little starlet, that Rudy croons the four new love songs. They are "A Little Kiss Each Morning," "I Love You, Believe Me, I Love You," "I'll Be Reminded of You," and "If You Were the Only Girl in the World."

In supporting roles are Marie Dressler, Eddie Nugent, Danny O'Shea, Norman Peck, Nella Walker, Alan Roscoe, Malcolm Waite, and Charles Sellon.
