Local and Personal*

Mrs. Robert E. Wood and daughter, Frances, expect to sail soon for Naples, where they will join Miss Sarah, who has been attending Miss Riser's school in Rome.

Mrs. Ingram Rasmussen will entertain the members of her bridge club tomorrow (Friday) evening.

Mrs. James A. Flynn left Tuesday to motor to Spencer, Neb., where she will spend three weeks. Mr. Flynn has left on a business trip to Duluth, Minn.

Miss Grace Koltermann entertained the members of her bridge club on Tuesday evening.

Mr. L. F. Harris and Mr. Phil Rapp are spending several days this week in Indianapolis, Ind., on business.

Mrs. William Cawley of Ridgewood drive entertained the members of her bridge club Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Casper Conrad of Ft. Sheridan is entertaining at luncheon on Saturday.

Don't forget there is only about one more week to purchase tickets for the big flower show backed by the Federated Women's club. They are on sale at the drug stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Raedeke of Broadview avenue are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, born March 7 at the Highland Park hospital. Mrs. Raedeke was formerly Miss Catherine Gieser.

Miss Edith Tucker spent the week end visiting friends at Champaign, Illinois.

The Junior Star club will hold their annual banquet on Monday evening at the Green Tea Pot. Reservations must be made with Mrs. George Greene, Gray avenue, not later than Saturday.

Little Mary Alice Larson entertained eighteen of her little friends Monday afternoon in celebration of her fourth birthday. All of the little folks report a most delightful time.

Mrs. Kellogg Speed is local ticket chairman for the Chicago Garden and Flower show at the Hotel Sherman. This is the show for which hundreds of federated club women are working.

Henry B. Clark, Jr., fourteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Clark of this city, has just received honorable mention for the prize winning contribution which appears in the March number of the St. Nicholas Magazine. He has not won any of the league prizes before and has, therefore, made a good start by gaining a place among the winners of these monthly contests where the competition is so keen and the number of competitors so large.

Mrs. William T. Jones and children of 310 N. Linden avenue, who have been vacationing on the Gulf coast at Biloxi, Miss., since the first of February, are expected home in the next few days.

Mrs. Herbert Naas of S. Green Bay road entertained the members of her bridge club at her home on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John Croke will entertain the members of her bridge club tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at her home on N. Green Bay road. The members are mostly all Fort Sheridan ladies and there will be three tables.

Miss Ada Johnson entertained the members of her bridge club at her home on Glencoe avenue last Thursday evening. There were two tables.

Last Thursday Mrs. Charles Meinhard entertained eight guests at one o'clock luncheon and bridge at her home on N. Green Bay road.

The Fort Sheridan Woman's club held its regular meeting Monday evening in the chapel. A large attendance was present.

Miss Lucille Helm of Lake Zurich was the week end guest of relatives and friends here.

Mrs. George F. Conrad who has spent the past two weeks visiting relatives and friends in Michigan City, South Bend and Hammond, Ind., has returned to her home, 605 Deerfield avenue, today.

Mrs. Bernard Stay of Oak avenue entertained at a miscellaneous shower in compliment to Mrs. Oscar Anderson, Jr., last Friday evening. About twenty guests were present and Mrs. Anderson was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Bunco was the feature of the evening. Mrs. Anderson was the former Sylvia Trout before her marriage a few weeks ago.

Miss Grace Johnston entertained her 500 club Tuesday evening at her home on North avenue. The prizes were won by Phyllis Jacobs, Zita Fehrenback and Franzes Walz.

Mr. A. Dostalek of Onwentsia avenue has returned from St. Petersburg where he spent the last month.

Mrs. Woodbury, Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Hayward drove to Northbrook

Two Good Reasons

Making Your Will

YOUR wife and daughter deserve the best protection you can give. They get it now but will they when you are no longer here? Only by making your Will and naming an experienced, competent Executor and Trustee can you assure the carrying out of your wishes. Make sure now; then accident cannot interfere.

Our Trust Officer will gladly give of his experience in helping you to plan your Will for the practical, economical administration of your estate. Have your attorney draw it then in proper legal form. And our Trust Officer will be glad to explain the many advantages offered by this institution as Executor and Trustee. Get in touch with him soon—there is no obligation.
