The first Lenten service met with very gratifying response and the audience seemed very much pleased with this type of service. The slides were presented in most beautiful colors and the pictures well illustrated the theme, "Christ in the Wilderness With His Life Problem." The service next Sunday will present the second crisis in the life of the Master "In Conflict with Religious Customs." These services are not only instructive but worshipful. They should serve to lead us into a more intimate relationship and into a deeper friendship with our Savior. These services also offer an opportunity for parents to bring their children in contact with some of the greater and finer things of life. We were glad to see some families represented by all the members. Let us all make it family night at St. Paul's next Sunday evening.

A male quartet will furnish the special music and a soprano soloist will sing the accompanying hymn to the illustrated lecture.

The fourth lecture on the subject "Salvation" will precede the Lenten service and will be held in the Sunday school room.

The announcement of the local basketball tournament appears elsewhere in this paper.

Tuesday, March 18 St. Paul's will play at Lake Zurich.
