Graham Crawford of Highwood Dies Sunday

Graham Crawford of 301 Fulton avenue, Highwood, and a well known resident of that city died in the St. Theresa hospital, at Waukegan, Sunday afternoon after an illness of two weeks, during which period he was operated upon for removal of his appendix.

The deceased was born in Volney, Iowa, on July 16, 1855. He had been employed in recent years in the shops of the North Shore railroad in Highwood.

Besides his wife he is survived by the following children: M. L. of Burbank, Calif., Mrs. John McKim of Glendale, Calif., and Clifton A. Louis J. Walter R., William B., and Ora D., of Waukegan.

Funeral services were held in Waukegan, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Goodwin officiated.

Horse: Why are you wearing that old sweater to class? Haven't you any shirt?

Feathers: Sure, I have lots of shirts, but they are both in the wash.

Hold Dance Tonight
El. Sheridan and his Merrymakers are still playing for the usual big crowd that attend these popular dances at Odd Fellows hall each Thursday evening. If you have not been attending these dances, why not join the crowd tonight?

Twelve friends of Miss May Larson tendered her a pleasant surprise on Monday evening when they came to spend the evening with her. A number of games were played and refreshments served. All report a delightful evening.
