Committees for Junior Prom

Committees have been appointed for the annual Junior Prom to be held very soon. No definite date has been set yet for the affair, but it probably will take place in May.

The entertainment committee is headed by Marjorie Frye, who has had experience in this work before. Bob Hamner will have charge of picking out the best orchestra that can be obtained for the party. Others on the entertainment committee are Norman Porter, Louise Gehr, and John Derby, vice-president of the junior class.

The decorations will be handled by "Gwen" Sanders, social chairman, ably assisted by Bob Lester, class president. A new innovation in decorations is said to be in store for those who attend the prom. "Gwen" will be helped by Sam Toigo, Ruth Lenfesty, Hazel Swanton, Frank Straight, and Warren Geary. Ned Ball will have charge of the lighting.

Marjorie Ingram is chairman of the refreshment committee. Those assisting her are Morton Traub, Margaret Colestock, and Helen Holstrom.

The job of letting everybody know about the prom rests on the shoulders of Henry Belfield, secretary-treasurer of the class; Bob Graham, former Shoreline editor; and Edward Steffen.

Ticket sales will be handled by George Liske and "Tommy" Strenger. Assisting them are Pliny Norcross, Davis Ginter, Gordon Leonard, and Robert Ruwitch. Bud Snite, Hugh Seyforth, and Melbourne Beers will be the seniors selling tickets.
