

Among the Local Churches

Bethany Evangelical Church
H. F. Siemsen, Pastor
A. S. Haag, Assistant Pastor
The attendance at all of our last Sunday services were very gratifying. The doors of Bethany church swing wide open to all who do not worship elsewhere.

The Pageant group will have their final rehearsal on Friday evening.

The Church-school next Sunday morning will begin at 9:45. Morning worship at 11:00 a. m. E.L.C.E. at 7:00. The evening service at 7:45. The evening will be of special interest to many in the community, as it will be the time for the presentation of the beautiful pageant entitled "The Challenge of the Cross." This pageant has a very stirring message and is very appropriate for the Lenten season. Its appeal is one that will challenge all who are present, to deeper consecration and to greater service or the Master; do not fail to see this.

On Sunday, March 30 Bishop S. P. Spreng of Naperville, Illinois will be present at Bethany for both the morning and evening service. His presence will be the beginning of a series of "Life Investment Meetings." Bishop Spreng has long been recognized by leading men of other denominations as one of the great preachers of our day. It will be a rare treat for the people of this vicinity to hear him.

St. John's Evangelical Church
Green Bay Rd. and Homewood Ave.
F. W. Fischer, Pastor

If you want your children well equipped for life send them or better bring them to Sunday school at 9:30. Here a friendly teacher greets them, and Biblical instruction is given them.

Do you feel lost and blue. Come to church where you hear the way of life to make you happy again. Our inspiring services at 10:30 are open to all.

To bring a "perfect" day to a perfect end join us in our evening services at 7:30 Sunday night and attend our Lenten services at 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening.

Do you like to sing? Friday evening at 8 o'clock offers you a good opportunity.

Remember you are always welcome at St. John's church.

Redeemer Lutheran Church
West Central and McGovern
W. F. Suhr, Pastor
Sunday school—9:30.
German service—10:30.
English service—11:00.

The subject for the Lenten service on Thursday evening is: "The judgment hall of Pontius Pilate."

On Sunday the theme of the sermon will be: "The Resurrection of the body."

Surely this Lent can only be of spiritual benefit to us, if we give ourselves to meditation and study of the Word of God at home, and to a faithful attendance of the services at church.

St. Paul's Evangelical Church
Deerfield
F. G. Piepenbrok, Pastor
Church school—9:15 a. m.
Worship service—10:30 a. m.
Lecture—7:15 p. m.
Illustrated Lenten service — 8:00 p. m.

Choir Friday—7:45 p. m.
Confirmation Saturday—9:00 a. m.
The lecture on "Salvation" was well attended. The Sunday school room was crowded with listeners. Sunday evening we will discuss "Baptism." The lecture starts promptly at 7:15 and closes 7:45.

Our illustrated Lenten services are very favorably received. The attendance at all of our previous Lenten services has been very good but this year we are setting new records. These services are very worshipful, inspiring and educational. Come next Sunday and see and hear the third crisis in the Life of Jesus, "On the Hillside with the Common People." The special music will be furnished by the mixed choir and soloist.

Tuesday, March 25, you will have opportunity to see the last home league game which the St. Paul's boys will play against the Arlington Heights team.

Do not forget to support the basketball tournament for the local championship March 20, 22, 27, 29. Games will be played at the Deerfield Grammar school gymnasium.
