

SPRING STYLE SHOW AT Y. W. C. A. MAR. 27

tume jewelry will be shown on living models carefully selected. Shoes from the local boot shops will be worn to harmonize with the frocks. The models will be Katherine Johnson for the Junior Miss, and the Misses Helen Novak, Evelyn Suomi, Ada Selk, Crystal Tolley, Anna Molanien, Augusta Schriefer, Jane Anderson, and Mrs. A. T. Trapp as well as several children, ranging in age from three years up.

The Deerfield-Shields octette, under the direction of Helen Mayer Mannings, will play several numbers. Eleanor Erickson will play some special numbers. The Style Show committee is arranging specialty dancing numbers here and there on the program by several pupils of Mildred Haessler. The committee is headed by Mrs. Rybolt and her co-chairman, Mrs. E. J. Ginter and a committee of girls.

The styles used in the show will be the property of the local dealers.

J. B. Garnett & Company will show kiddies, pal, brother and sister togs, wash dresses, maids uniforms, jersey sport suits, silk ensembles, co-ed line with the matching hats, purses, and costume jewelry.

Smith's Dry Goods Store will model

a Jack Tar line for children from 6 to 14.

The Jack and Jill Shop will model the Junior hand-made frocks in taffeta and wash materials and also a sport line.

Daily's Ready-to-Wear Store afternoon dresses, coats, suits, hats and jewelry.

The Mary Ann chiffons, evening dresses, wraps, and sport suits.

The shoes for the models will be furnished by Fell Bros., Rasmussen Bros., and Ellandee Shoe Shop.

The settings for the stage will be furnished by the Alden Studio and flowers by the local florists.

The local shops have much to offer as the models will prove to those who attend the Style Show at the Y. W. C. A. on March 27, at 8:15 o'clock.

Important Concessions to Feminine Interests by H. C. Lytton & Sons

Everyone was interested when another masculine stronghold gave way to a feminine invasion. The Hub, Henry C. Lytton & Sons, recently opened a new department of women's and college girls' coats. Much comment and excitement resulted in feminine circles. And the idea was so immediately popular that further extensions and additions were undertaken at once.

It's always an item of news when anyone does anything in the "modern" manner. The Hub's new department (on the 5th floor of their main store at the corner of State and Jackson) in green and crystal is modern in the most charming sense of the word. It has an atmosphere which is delightfully unique and that is highly appropriate to the new ideas which it inaugurates. For the convenience of those who prefer to do their shopping in the suburbs the same models in coats and 3-piece suits are carried at the Evanston Shop at Orrington and Church.

This department has been so well received that The Hub is already adding considerably to the number and variety of the models on display in every one of its stores. It will be of general interest to see how successful such a change in The Hub's former policy of clothing for men and boys only proves to be. The bets, we might add, are 100 to 1 for The Hub.

Address Aurora High

On Friday, March 14, Dr. George B. Lake, of Highland Park and Chicago, spoke to the students of the Aurora high school on the general subject of mental hygiene, the text of his discourse being "Mind Your Own Business."
