Dog Presents $5 Bill to Racine Policeman

Grover Lutter, a detective on the Racine Police department, and a former well known resident of Waukegan, has changed his belief about dogs. He was standing at a street corner a few nights ago when a big collie scampered down the sidewalk and leaped affectionately at Lutter. "Get out of here," the detective ordered. The dog seemed abashed for a moment, but then renewed his show of affection. Lutter looked more closely-the dog was holding a $5 bill in its mouth. Lutter pocketed the money and the dog scampered down the street. He will pay more attention to strange dogs in future.
