

Y. W. C. A. Notes

New Business Girls Club

Young Business Women of Highland Park and Deerfield were guests of the Y. W. C. A. at a supper Thursday night, March 20, at the association house.

Thirty-six young women, in response to invitations sent out by the Business Girls committee, met in the living room of the "Y" for an informal "get-acquainted" half hour. Supper was served in the assembly room at 6:30. The table was very attractive with its flowers and candles in pastel tints. Mrs. E. J. Ginter, chairman of the Deerfield committee, was responsible for that, as well as for a remarkably fine delegation of Deerfield girls. Just when the hum of conversation was at its best, some one suggested a "who's who." So each girl in turn rose and told her name and business connection.

A surprise drawing then took place. The prize a lovely corsage of sweet peas, was won by Ella Epperson, Highland Park hospital.

Plans for forming a club were proposed. This met with such enthusiastic response that it was decided to set the date of the next meeting for Thursday, April 3. At this time a name will be decided upon, and officers will be chosen. The following committee will prepare the program for the dinner hour. Miss Bessie Pearce, Grace McClure, Gayle Bornemann, and Miss Rosetta Taylor.

The following girls volunteered to plan and prepare the dinner, Helen Novak, Carolyn Saathoff, Marian McManus, Helen Kauffman.

We hope that if you are a young woman living either in Highland Park or in Deerfield, you will consider this an invitation to come and enjoy the evening with us next Thursday, April 3, at 6:30.

B.Y.'s

The B. Y.'s gave a miscellaneous shower at the Y.W.C.A. for Bertha Hackenberg Crawford. Hostesses were Misses Alvina Schneider, and May Hansen. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received. The club has changed the date for their spring dance to April 23, at the Y.W.C.A. Tickets can be purchased from club members.

Art Class

The poster making class, taught by Cora Hendee, had its second meeting Wednesday evening, at which time several new girls entered. It is an opportunity for any one wishing to know how to make posters, to join. Drawing pens are used and may be purchased at the class.

Girl Reserve

The Swastika Girl Reserves are preparing a living G.R. book for their part at the Mother and Daughter banquet, April 4, followed by a "Healthy Style Show." Cubs Sr. "Road to Life Perfect," the Cubs, Jr., the Code interpretation. The assembly where the supper will be served will be decorated in Japanese lanterns. Each club is responsible for a part of the program.

G. R. Council

The G. R. council met at the Y.W.C.A. Friday evening after school. The principle business was the plans for the coming event "The Girl Reserve Mother—Daughter Banquet" April 4, at 6:30. Each club must have the number attending the banquet in at the Y.W.C.A. office by Thursday morning.

Mother Club

The Mothers club is having an April Fools Masquerade party Tuesday, April 1, 8:00 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. Prizes will be awarded for the best and funniest costume. Mrs. Abbot and committee will serve refreshments. The latter part of the evening will be given to business. Proceeds for the play and the Ruth Hanna McCormick tea will be announced by the committee in charge.

In all the broadsides directed at Congress little is said about the one thing that would surely solve the prohibition problem: Get the people to stop drinking.—Boston Transcript.

The people of Austria are aroused by having a mysterious "wonder doctor" in their midst. He probably gets his title from the fact that his standard fee is 45 cents a visit.
