

Lucky
HE Discovered
IT

The old yellow envelope at the bottom of his safe deposit box holds a message for you.

HIS will made 20 years ago! Made and dismissed from his mind.

It's a fortunate circumstance that leads him to come across it at this particular time.

For news has just reached him of the death of his old friend whom he had named executor under the will.

Now he decides to appoint another "friend"—this time a friendly institution like ourselves—which is here for all time and has behind it years of experience in this kind of work.

The next time you open your safe deposit box, get out your will. Look it over. Bring its provisions up-to-date, and follow the up-to-date method of naming us as your executor. A new will or a brief codicil to your old one will take care of this.
