also expressed regret at his inability to be present. Mrs. W. A. Roberts, president of the Chicago Forum, acted as toastmistress, and began by wishing the league many happy returns of the day. She introduced Miss Julia Lathrop and Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, with much grace and warm appreciation. Even the chef was inspired by the occasion, for during luncheon, all lights were suddenly lowered, and huge sparkling letters of ice spelling "10 years old" were solemnly carried in, followed by many platters of illuminated frozen desserts.

Tribute to Pioneers

Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, one of the foremost workers for women's suffrage, paid tribute to the pioneers of the movement, and to the other courageous women who have fought for it down the years naming, among others, Susan B. Anthony, Mary A. Livermore, Mary E. Holmes, Dr. Julia Holmes Smith, Myra Bradwell, Frances E. Willard, Lucy Stone, Mrs. Lucy Flowers, Miss Jane Adams, and Miss Julia Lathrop. She concluded by saying that the women of this generation were the heirs of that struggle. They have entered into the "promised land" and their "tool" is the "consecrated ballot."

Miss Julia Lathrop, distinguished as head of the Children's Bureau in Washington, and for many years of social service, spoke of looking forward to the time when young men and women of fine attainments would be attracted to government service; when honest administration of the government would be of prime concern; when certain co-operation between schools of learning would be possible; and all services would be merged for the benefit of the human creature—especially the child. She described the touching letters received by the Children's Bureau from young mothers in the rural districts, and pleaded for a continuance of the work done under the Sheppard-Towner act. Either the first Jones-Cooper bill (H. R. 1195), or the Goodwin bill (H. R. 10574), introduced just recently, will accomplish this.

Don't Forget to Vote

The Highland Park League of Women Voters reminds all voters of the Primary elections Tuesday, April 8. Any citizen who has resided in the state for one year, in the county for 90 days, and in the voting district for 30 days, is entitled to vote. There are no registrations in Highland Park for Primary elections. If the name of any person desiring to vote is not found on the register the day of election, that person may be qualified by securing some household-er who is a registered voter, to vouch for him.

Makes No Endorsements

In the April issue of the Illinois Voter, the monthly publication of the League of Women Voters, are printed 18 votes of the last General Assembly, and the records of the candidates running for state and national offices. In compiling the records the Congressional Record and Directory, the Illinois Blue Book, and questionnaires sent to the candidates have been used. The League of Women Voters, which is all partisan, makes no endorsements, but makes available as far as possible, facts concerning the experience and point of view of the candidates.

In further aid to the voters, who must nominate one U. S. senator, term six years, two congressmen at large and twenty-five other congressman, term two years. The league summarizes the important issues likely to come before the next congress.

DOOLITTLE for SHERIFF

"There is no question that Lake County within a short period of time will have to face the gangster situation which is such a menace in Chicago and Cook County, and we want to make certain that we have a sheriff who is an able police officer and will be fearless, so that gangsters cannot get a foothold."

The foregoing is a statement of the campaign manager of one of Doolittle's opponents and was published in the Chicago Sunday Tribune March 30th, 1930

THE fact is that Lake County is NOW and has been facing the gangster problem, but Sheriff Doolittle has successfully handled the situation and has kept the hoodlums out for more than three years.

Frequent attempts of Chicago gangs to establish headquarters from which to tap the wealthy Lake County district have been decisively dealt with.

That Lake County is not NOW ruled by the vice lords of Chicago is proof of the ability of the present Sheriff to cope with a situation which has outgrown Cook County's law enforcement body.

The same untiring battle against this alarmingly increasing menace can best be carried on by a continuance of the service which has been rendered by the Sheriff's Office since December 1926.

Lake County does not want gangsters, hoodlums and racketeers.

Do your part to protect the safety and happiness of your home by going to the polls on Tuesday, April 8th to vote for
