Inter-Club Council

The Girl Reserve Inter-Club council met Friday afternoon. There was a splendid representation from each school. Plans were completed for the banquet as well as future plans made. There will be a general Girl Reserve romany day hike, April 10. Chaperones are Hermina de Hartog, Rose Opitz, Marjorie Kendall and Mrs. Bierwirth. It is hoped each girl will attend. Lunch will be prepared in the open. Further announcements will be made. The council has proven a splendid way to make general plans for the different clubs and to be carried back to the clubs to be put into action.

No Lack in Modern Girl

On Wednesday morning, March 26, Mrs. Robert E. Speer, of New York, president of the National board, Y. W. C. A., spoke during the homemakers hour. Her topic was, "The American Home and the Y. W. C. A." and was treated from the angle of the modern girl and the changes in her life within and without the home.

"The chief problem of the modern girl is not any lack in herself," says Mrs. Speer. "Her difficulty arises from the fact that society too often asks her to make bricks without straw, to earn her living and her share of the family income outside the home, and then with little or no training in homemaking to be able when her turn comes as homemaker to provide all the economic, ethical, social and spiritual skill that go into the finest and the oldest of all arts, that of homemaking. If the modern girl has half a chance she can and will enrich the home by bringing into it valuable experience earned in the business world outside."
