Invite Garden Clubs to Annual Guest Day

Members of the Deerfield Garden club and the Bannockburn Garden club are cordially invited to attend the Annual Guest day meeting of the Ravinia Garden club to be held Saturday, April 26 at 2 p.m., at the Village house on Dean and Roger Williams avenue.

Mrs Maud E. Jacobs of the Garfield Park Conservatory will give a talk on "Continuation of Bloom in the Garden." Mrs. Jacobs is a great favorite with north shore gardeners and her many friends will welcome this opportunity of hearing her again.

Members of the Ravinia Garden club are very anxious to become better acquainted with their gardening neighbors and are looking forward to a pleasant little visit after the lecture over a "cup of tea."

Members Urged to Attend Meeting April 10

Members of the Deerfield and Wilnot Parent Teacher associations are reminded to reserve Thursday evening, April 10 as that is the date when William John Cooper will speak on, "The Highschool and Democracy" at the Deerfield-Shields high school auditorium at 8 p.m. Not only are members of the associations invited to hear Mr. Cooper but also the general public.

Scout Leader Here

E. J. Ginter

Mr. E. J. Ginter, chairman of the Deerfield Bannockburn district Boy Scout committee, reports the campaign for money for the 1930 budget and camp fund to be still some distance from the goal. Mr. Ginter wishes to thank those who have so generously contributed and to request any who have not yet done so to forward their subscriptions to the Finance Chairman Mr. E. B. Jordan. This will be doubly appreciated as it will cut down the amount of personal solicitation necessary on the part of the finance committee.

Scouting has made great progress in these communities during the last year. Even greater plans are under way for the coming months, of immediate interest in the Court of Honor and Hobby Show to be held at the Deerfield public school on Friday, April 11, 7:30 p.m. The parents and friends of scouting are especially invited to attend and witness the accomplishments of the various scouts and troops.

On account of the inclement weather, the Wilnot school was closed on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

The Deerfield grammar school pupils enjoyed their spring vacation last week.
