

SPRING STYLE SHOW AT Y.W. TWO NIGHTS

The stage setting is by Alden Studio, flower arrangement by Bahr and Drieske. Special music by Eleanor Erickson, Dora Kreuger, violin, vocal numbers by Bessie Pearce. Three dances by pupils of Mildred Haessler Polka, Ella Horn, minuet by Shirley Byers and Rosemary Garst. The living book "Fashion of the Ages" will show the style of 1900 by 10 young women wearing frocks from Adele Everett, Mrs. J. H. Dingle and Mrs. Henry B. Clark. As each page is turned the girls dressed in the costume of yesterday will step out showing the modest bathing suit, the handy caped tennis or sport frock, the high necked and long sleeved summer afternoon dress along with many others accompanied by music of the day, as "Good Old Summer Time" Peg of my Heart, etc. The last page will reveal the "Fashion of the Hour" by 10 young women. The contrast showing the freedom and comfort of the present day backless bathing suit, the golf costume, the sleeveless and sun tan back afternoon frock and etc. is amazing. One wonders if women will ever permit the fashion pendulum to swing back to such a discomfort in clothes again.

The models' hair will be dressed by Helen Barback of the Highland Park Powder Puff. Shoes to harmonize with the garment from Fell Bros., and Ellandee Sinc Shop.

In order to give all in Highland Park an opportunity to see the Style Show, it will be given two nights — Thursday and Friday. The Y.W.C.A. assembly accommodates 250 and it is hoped no one will have to be turned away.

Orange Juice Bottled and Delivered Daily

Among the outstanding announcements of the week is that of the Pure Orange Juice Company of America, a half-million dollar Illinois corporation controlled and directed by a number of prominent north shore and Chicago business men whose names are familiar to many of our readers.

One quart of Racklin's 100 per cent Pure Orange Juice, ready to serve, is said to be equivalent to the juice of 15 choice oranges squeezed in your own kitchen. A pint equal to seven and one-half oranges, and one-half pint equivalent to four oranges.

Deliveries are now being made daily in Wilmette, Winnetka, Glenview, Highland Park and Evanston by their own courteous salesmen. See three-quarter page announcement elsewhere in this issue for telephone numbers of local offices when placing a trial order.

The directors of the Pure Orange Juice Company of America are H. L. Racklin, A. L. Webster, John S. Miller, Albert Pick, Alan C. Dixon, James C. Stevenson and Dr. J. J. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forgan and their daughter Miss Betty and son Robert D. Jr., are sojourning at Atlantic City, N.J.

Miss Ruth Berube spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Berube of North Greenbay road. Miss Ruth is in training at the Mercy hospital.

Mrs. Edward A. Hintz, Mrs. Arnold Peterson, and Miss Emma Gieser left yesterday on a motor trip to Iowa and Nebraska. Miss Gieser will stop in Ames, Iowa, to visit relatives.
