

Mrs. George Bahr Is Buried Saturday

On Saturday afternoon at three o'clock the funeral services for the late Mrs. Louisa Kough Bahr were held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kough, 5460 Rice street, Austin, with the Rev. Gerald G. Moore of the Episcopal church of the Advent officiating. She passed away on Thursday after an illness of five months duration of heart trouble at the age of 22 years. She was married to George Bahr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Bahr of this city, August 18, 1926 and since then has resided at 535 Laurel avenue, until three months ago when her condition became serious and she was taken to the home of her parents. She was of a bright sunny disposition and much loved by all who knew her. She was a member of the Highland Park Woman's club and several social clubs at which she will be greatly missed. Beside her husband, she leaves to survive her a mother and father and one brother Blachford. Interment was in Mount Emblem cemetery near Elmhurst.

Deerpath Theatre Is Offering Brilliant
Program Next Week

Beginning with "The Virginian" on Thursday and Friday of this week, Deerpath Theatre, Lake Forest, offers a brilliant and varied program for the ensuing week, including such popular hits as "His First Command," "So Long Letty," "Condemned" and "The Kibitzer."

In "The Virginian" appear Gray Cooper, Walter Huston, Richard Arlen and Mary Brian in two days, April 3 and 4. On Saturday, matinee and evening, "His First Command," with William Boyd and Dorothy Sebastian, a colorful, dramatic, military romance.

Sunday, continuous 2 to 11 p.m. — Marion Davies in "Not So Dumb," with Elliott Nugent, Raymond Hackett and Franklin Pangborn. The play is based on the stage hit, "Dulcy."

Monday and Tuesday, April 7 and 8—Talking travel picture, "Up the Congo" and also "So Long Letty," with Charlotte Greenwood, Grant Withers, Patsy Ruth Miller and Bert Roach.

Wednesday and Thursday, April 9 and 10—Ronald Coleman and Ann Harding in "Condemned," with Louis Wolheim. Here is a combination of screen stars hard to beat anywhere.

Friday and Saturday, April 11 and 12 — "The Kibitzer," with Harry Green.

Sunday and Monday, April 13 and 14—Jaynet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in "Sunny Side Up." Coming soon, "Hit the Deck" and "The Vagabond King."

Deerfield Locals

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds entertained relatives from Waukegan on Sunday.

Mrs. Roscoe Wessling and daughter Dorothy, Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson and sons, Paul and Dwight, spent Friday in Chicago where they attended the Tenth International Exhibition of Water Colors at the Art Institute and the Fourth Annual Garden and Flower Show in the Hotel Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Vant, who spent the winter in Long Beach, California, returned home Tuesday.

The members of the Bannockburn Garden club and their guests will have a luncheon at the Central States Garden and Flower show, Chicago Stadium, Monday, April 7.

Mrs. Molly Pfister underwent an operation at the Highland Park hospital on Wednesday.

Miss Louise Huhn, on her way home Tuesday evening on Deerfield avenue, fell, breaking her leg.

Ping Pong Tourney at Highland Park Club

A Ping Pong tournament will be held at the Highland Park club, Saturday evening, April 12. Both boys and girls, of all ages may enter. This however is not open to outsiders. There will be prizes and several classes.

Applications should be sent to the Highland Park club in care of Mrs. Russell and they will be taken care of by the committee. All entries must be in by April 12.

VIEW OF A LIVING ROOM AND BREAKFAST ROOM

You will like it here. The Homestead has a spirit of contentment about it. The character and personality of the guests we have largely contribute to this comfortable feeling, and we do our utmost to continue our high standard of hospitality and alert service to make a genuine home.

You will enjoy a visit to our Colonial interiors and to our tea room where all food is prepared and served by women, at most reasonable prices.

You can live here as comfortably as you are accustomed to in your own home—for a short period or a long time.

The HOMESTEAD

1625 HINMAN AVE.

A Few Paces North of Davis St.

EVANSTON

PHONE GREENLEAF 3300

For the NEW MAJESTIC RADIO

see

Highland Park's Exclusive Dealer

STEFFEN AUTO SUPPLY

Phone Highland Park 350

Highland Park