

STATE AND COUNTY CANDIDATES APRIL 8

(Continued from page 3)

Edmund Foss, Frank H. Funk, Edward J. Hargrave, Charles R. Harris, Justus L. Johnson, Julius Klein, Leslie S. Lowden, James P. Marzano, Robert W. McKinlay, W. H. Miller, Francis W. Peterson, Frank L. Smith, Wm. Grant Webster, Edward I. Killiams, John T. Wood, Richard Yates, Stanislaus E. Basinski, Frederick Beach, Ellis S. Cook, Thomas K. Davey, Stephen A. Day, Charles R. Echols, Patrick J. H. Farrell.

Congressman, 10th Dist.

For representative in congress, Tenth district (vote for one)—Carl

R. Chindblom, Ashbel V. Smith, Edward H. Seabridge, Robert W. Hommes, Maurice T. Weinshenk.

For state central committeeman, Tenth district (vote for one)—William M. Brown, Leonard A. Brundage, Eric A. Soderstan, Charles W. Neubauer, Alfred C. Gunn.

For State Representatives

For representative in general assembly, Eighth district state legislature (vote for one, two or three)—N. L. Jackson, Richard J. Lyons, Lee McDonough, William M. Carroll, Charles M. Palmer, Fred A. Galiger, Grace F. Bairstow, Charles F. Hayes, John Fair.

For senatorial committeeman, Eighth district (vote for one)—Ralph P. Pihl.

For County Offices

For county judge (vote for one)—

Perry L. Persons. Judge Persons has held this office for many years and has fulfilled its duties with credit to himself and benefit to the county. Charles E. Jack is the other candidate.

For county clerk (vote for one)—Lew A. Hendee. Mr. Hendee has been county clerk for years and has given entire satisfaction to his constituents. He has no opposition.

For probate judge (vote for one)—Martin C. Decker. Judge Decker has for many years efficiently performed the duties of this office. He has no opposition.

For clerk of the probate court (vote for one)—John R. Bullock. Mr. Bullock is the present incumbent. He has always proved an efficient and able officer. He has no opposition.

For county treasurer (vote for one)—Jay B. Morse. Mr. Morse, the present treasurer, has been in that office for several years, and in his hands the finance of the county have been well handled. He has no opposition.

For sheriff (vote for one)—H. A. Doolittle, Elmer Green, Edward A. Brown, Lester Tiffany, Edwin Ahlstrom.

For county superintendent of schools (vote for one)—T. Arthur Simpson. Mr. Simpson is the present incumbent. For many years he has ably administered the duties of this office. His opponent is W. C. Petty, superintendent of schools at Antioch.

Voters in each precinct are urged to vote for their candidate for precinct committeeman. On the ballot space is left for writing in the name of your candidate.

D. A. R. Musical and Guest Day April 10 At Home of Mrs. Boyd

(Continued from page 1)

Butler who is so gifted in the placing and developing of lovely voices, and in Miss Boberg she found a voice of exquisite bird-like quality. She has been a protege of the Chicago chapter of the D. A. R., and those who have heard her are quite extravagant in their praise of her.

Mrs. Boyd will be assisted on this occasion by Mrs. Kellogg Speed, Mrs. James Watson, and Mrs. M. R. Ehle.

Report on Films

The Better Films committee weekly review follows:

The local and neighboring theaters are offering the following attractions that are recommended by the Better Films committee:

"Seven Keys to Baldpate"—Thrilling picture, exciting mystery element combined with comedy, make somewhat unusual entertainment value. Adults, youth 15-20.

"The Virginian"—Strong and very thrilling in spots, but not over done. A picture of Western Frontier life far above the average. Adults.

"The Vagabond King"—A masterpiece. The finest romantic comedy made since talkies came. Family.

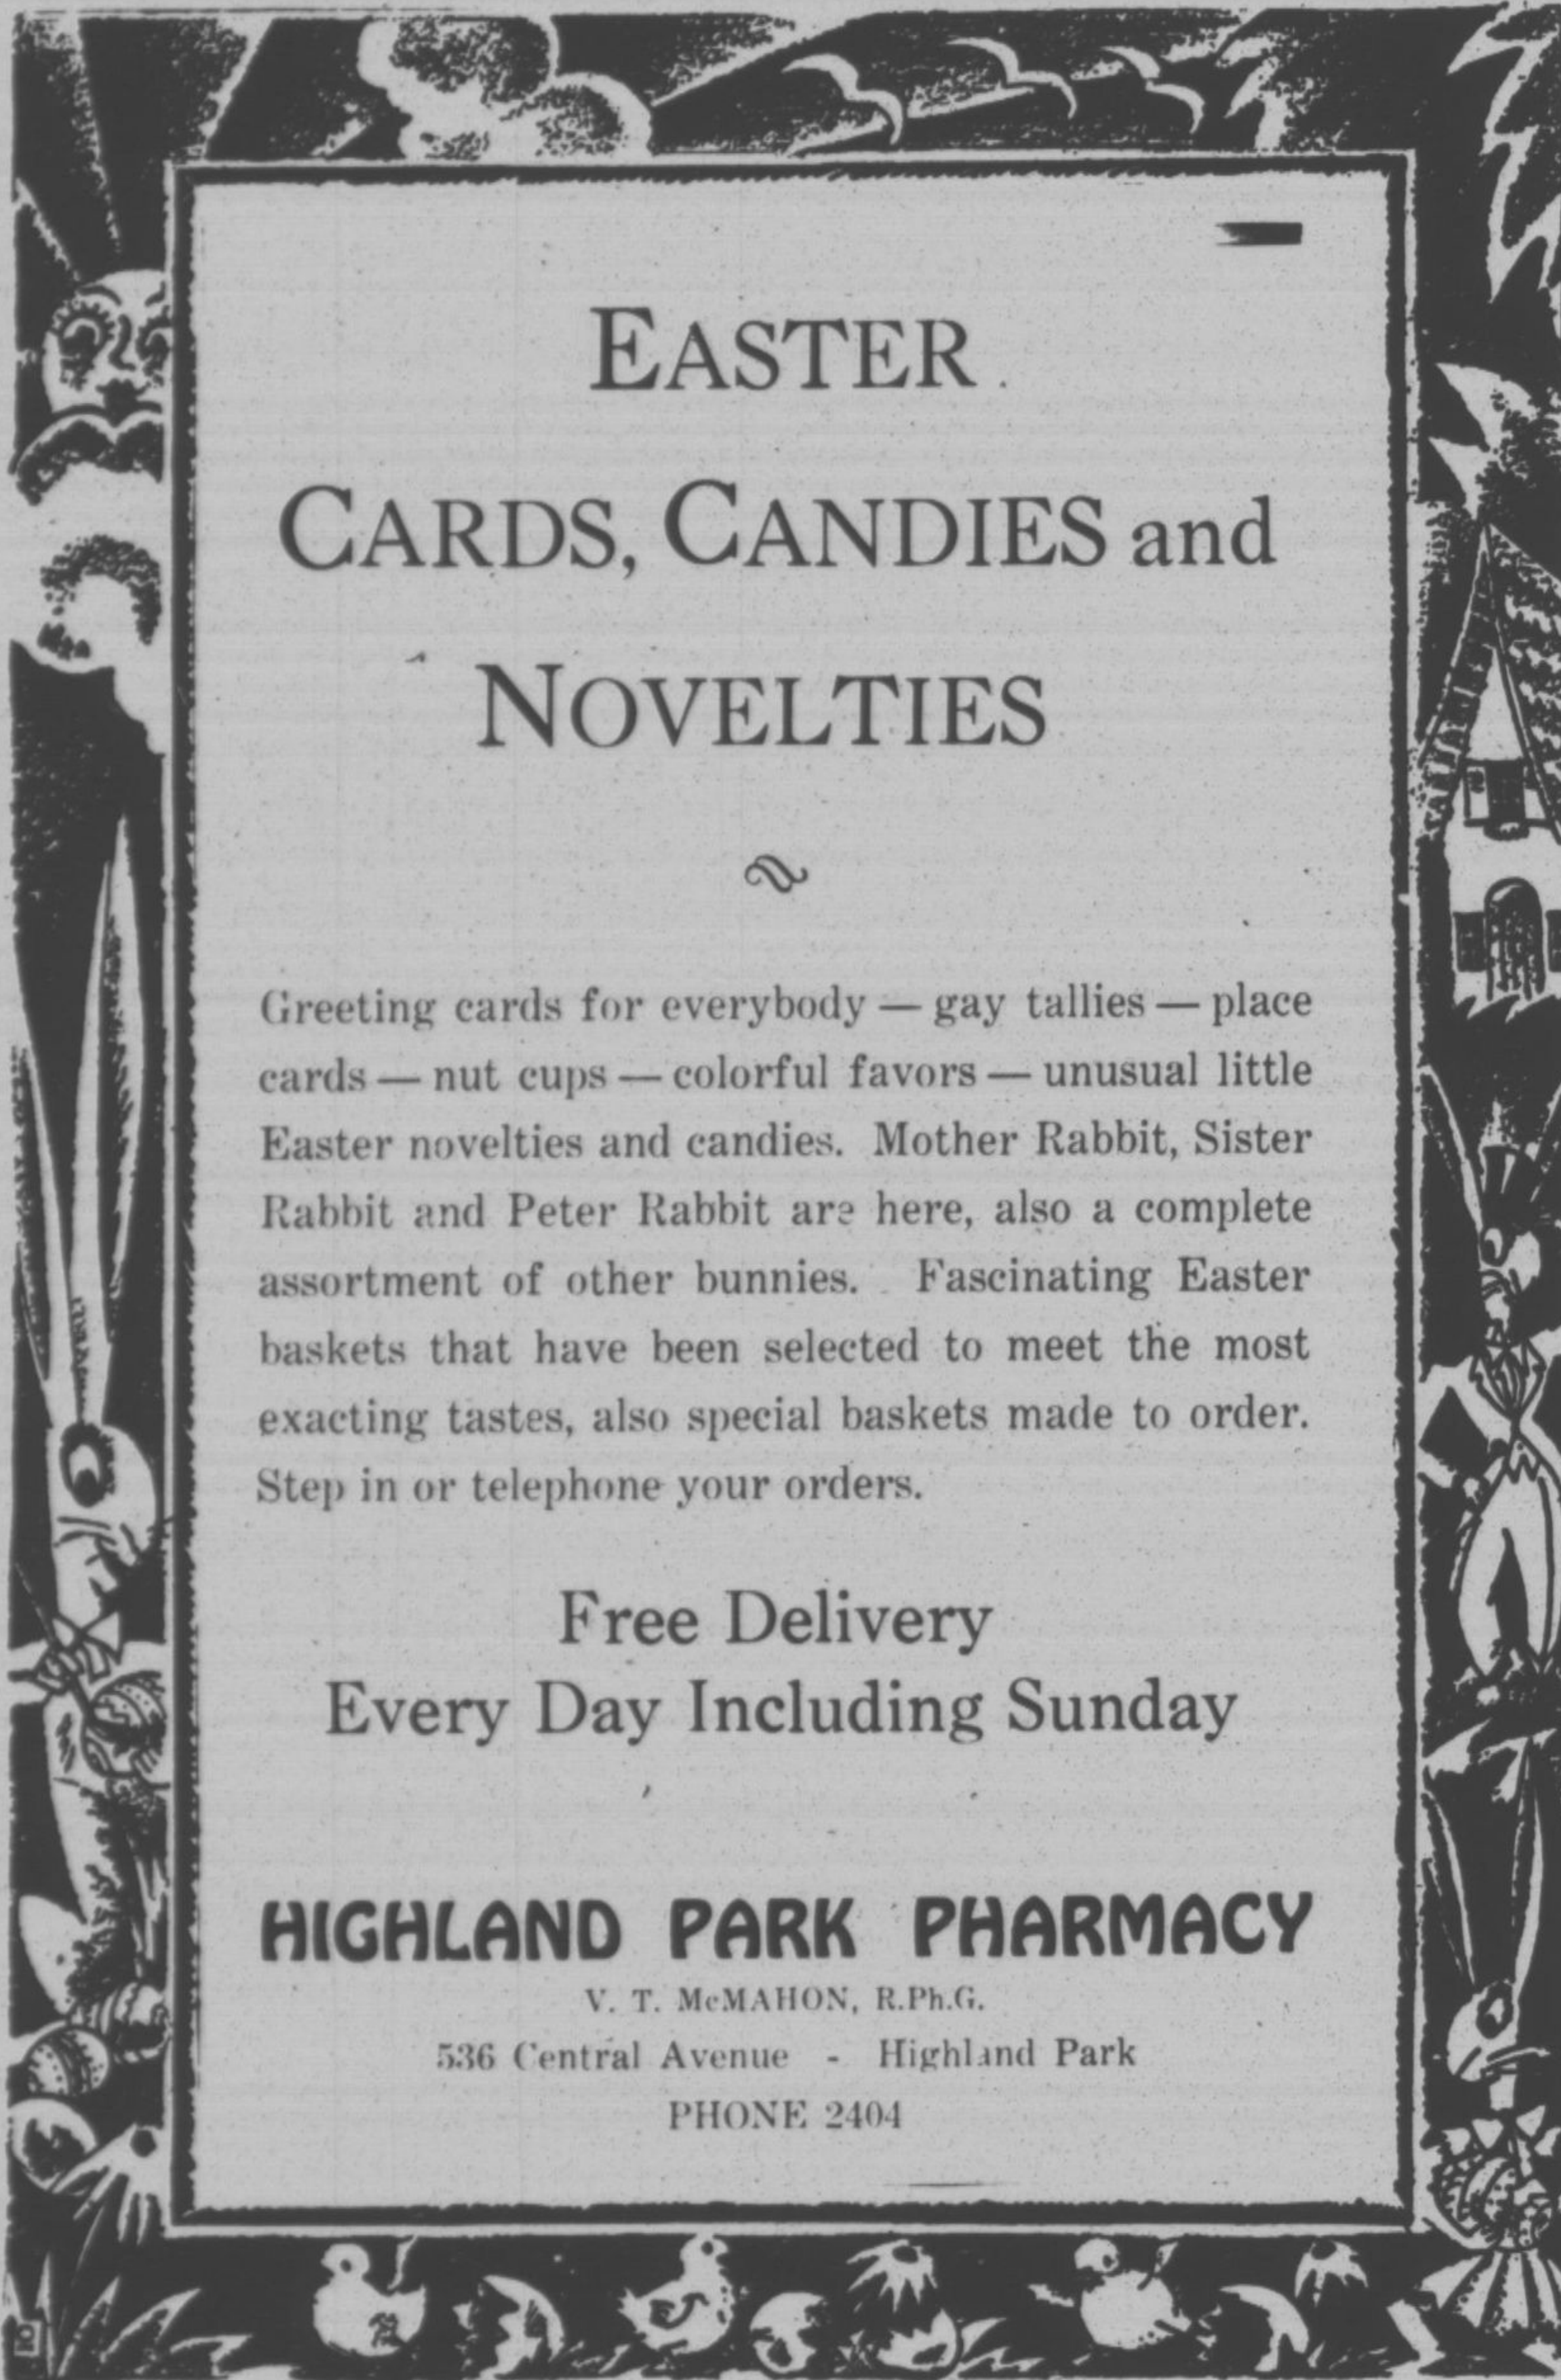

H. P. WOMAN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES NOTED

(Continued from page 4)

affairs and drew a convincing picture of America involved in world affairs, and not in an isolated program of her own. Mr. Kline discussed the League of Nations and World Court in a clear, concise way, urging American women as citizens to avail themselves of complete truthful information on political questions before committing themselves to opinions.

Spring Luncheon

The annual spring luncheon of the club will be held Tuesday, April 15, at 12:30 o'clock. Reservations must reach Mrs. George Bliss, 522 North Linden avenue, not later than April 11. Following the luncheon there will be reports of officers, election of officers and a group of poems and songs by Rowena Bastin Bennett.

EASTER

CARDS, CANDIES and NOVELTIES

Greeting cards for everybody — gay tallies — place cards — nut cups — colorful favors — unusual little Easter novelties and candies. Mother Rabbit, Sister Rabbit and Peter Rabbit are here, also a complete assortment of other bunnies. Fascinating Easter baskets that have been selected to meet the most exacting tastes, also special baskets made to order. Step in or telephone your orders.

Free Delivery
Every Day Including Sunday

HIGHLAND PARK PHARMACY

V. T. McMAHON, R.Ph.G.
536 Central Avenue - Highland Park
PHONE 2404