

The Highland Park Press

Sketch of drawing of proposed new Public Library building for Highland Park, plans for which have been approved by the city council and the Library board. It will be situated on the present site of the library, on Laurel avenue, to which there was added recently 60 feet on the west. Holmes & Flinn are the architects. Story on page 1.

Thursday, April 10, 1930

Price Five Cents