Grover Eddy, 41 years old, of Milwaukee, escaped death or permanent crippling last week when he fell from a limited Northwestern train as it was speeding through Waukegan.

Two new automatic stop lights were wired and set in operation last week at the dangerous intersection of Washington street and Sheridan road, Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Morrison, of 522 First street, Waukegan, who have been residents of that city for 17 years, recently celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary.

Fire which broke out in the hatchery building at the Reimer's Poultry Farm near Long Grove recently caused damages to the extent of $17,000 to the building, stock and equipment before being brought under control by the Long Grove fire department.

George Niggemeyer, convicted Fox lake murderer whose application for pardon was presented to the governor for approval recently, was denied his freedom along with 50 other state prisoners, it was officially announced last week. The petition for Niggemeyer's pardon, which was presented by Mrs. Mary Niggemeyer, his mother, was opposed by Col. A. V. Smith

John Adams of Waukegan was bound over to the grand jury in bonds of $5,000 by Justice Henry Wallenwein last week, charged with receiving and possessing goods stolen from the Lake Marie summer cottage of James E. Coston, president of the Theatre corporation of Chicago.

Strike an Average

Between the hypocrites who pretend to see in the most discordant of marriages something sacred and divine, never to be remedied by divorce, and the sensationalists who would class humans sexually with rats, there must be a happy medium. —Correspondence in Farm & Fireside.
