Tuesday, April 15: 8 p. m., English class at church.

Wednesday, April 16: 8 p. m., choir rehearsal at church.

Myriads of daffodils and crocuses are now appearing everywhere with their glad message of spring, yet how often

"We tread through fields of speckled flowers

as if we did not know

Our Father made them beautiful

Because He loves us so."

Attending church increases one's knowledge and appreciation of all that is good, beautiful, and worthwhile in life. You are invited to worship with us.

Bethany Evangelical Church

H. F. Siemsen, pastor

A. S. Haag, assistant pastor

The Woman's Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. John Erickson, 531 Gray avenue, this (Thursday) afternoon.

Rev. John G. Schwab of the Lockwood Avenue Evangelical Church of Chicago, will be the special speaker at the "Life Investment" service this evening. These services have been very worthwhile. Jesus Christ is a greater reality in the life of many, because of the blessings that have come to them during the past ten days. The pastor will bring the message on Friday evening.

The choir will have a rehearsal on Friday evening following the service.

Sunday will be a great day at Bethany for four reasons: first, it is Palm Sunday, an occasion which every Christian church observes. Second, it will be the closing day of our "Life Investment" services, a time when we hope many will allow the Master to triumphantly enter into their lives. Third, it will be our privilege to celebrate the first anniversary of the dedication of our new church. Fourth, it will be our great privilege to have with us Bishop J. S. Stamm of Kansas City, Mo., for both the 11 a. m. and the 7:15 p. m. services. Bishop Stamm is a man of great ability, a man whose message grips the hearts of his audiences. Our choir will also play an important part in the services of the day.

The Philathea class will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Bannon, 626 Skokie avenue, on Tuesday evening, April 15.

A special passion week service will be held Wednesday evening, April 16.

The pageant entitled "The Challenge of the Cross," which was given at Bethany a few weeks ago will be repeated on the evening of good Friday. The message of this very impressive service will make Good Friday more meaningful to all who see it.

An Easter Sale will be sponsored by the Philathea class. On Saturday April 19, it will be held at the Decker plumbing store on St. Johns avenue. Easter baskets, bakery goods, and candy will be sold. The sale commences at 9 a. m.

Easter Sunday, one of the greatest days of the Christian church, will be properly observed. A service of baptism and reception of members for church fellowship, also special Easter music will be some of the features in the morning service.

The choir will give their annual Easter cantata at a 4:30 vesper service that day.

The annual 86th session of the Illinois conference of the Evangelical church will be held at Elgin, Illinois, April 22 to 28.

First United Evangelical Church

The Church With the Open Bible

C. G. Unangst, Pastor

Vital Bible messages were given at the services on last Sunday. The singing by the Baracas and the Radeke trio at the evening service was inspiring. Let us remember that the truth taught can be a blessing only when it is put into practice in daily life.

Rev. Unangst returned from Dixon and Hoopole on Monday evening. He held churches in the United Evangelical churches there over the weekend. A fire at Hoopole brought the Sunday evening service to a close rather abruptly. Three buildings in the business section of the town were destroyed. During a former visit to Dixon, Mr. Unangst visited a lady who has an incurable disease and pointed her to Christ. Since that time she has had great peace of heart and mind to which she witnessed again on last Sunday afternoon when the Holy communion was administered to her. In the recent revival in Bethel church at Dixon some 20 people were converted and the Sunday school has almost doubled its attendance.

Special services will be held at this church on Sunday and on three evenings during next week, namely Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings.

The pastor will preach on, "Increasing and Abounding," at 10:45 a. m. on Sunday. He will present a review of the past year's work. This will be of great interest to all of our people.

Sermons by Rev. A. H. Leaman

Rev. A. H. Leaman, of Chicago, will preach four sermons beginning with Sunday evening. Note the time. The subjects are interesting and appropriate for the passion week season.

Sunday, 7:45 p. m.—"Our Fellowship with the Suffering Saviour."

Tuesday, 8:00 p. m.—"Contending for the Faith."

Wednesday, 8:00 p. m.—"Night Burial at Bethel."

Friday, 8:00 p. m.—"The Work of the Holy Spirit in its Relation to the Church."

Easter Sunday will be rich in blessing for our people. The following services will be held. The pastor will preach the Easter sermon at 10:45 a. m. There will be special exercises in the Sunday school. The choir will render a fine cantata at 7:45 p. m.

"Jesus the Children's Friend," is the title of the Bible lesson for the Sunday school for next Sunday. An interesting session of the school is expected. Come!

Dorsey Husenetter is the leader for the Christian Endeavor meeting at 7:00 p. m. Topic, "Why Everybody Needs Christ." Jno. 14:1-11.

"The Lord make you to increase and love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: to the end He may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God." I Thes. 3:12, 13.
