Both Drieske's and Bahr's sent flowers. The young women who modelled the garments had their hair dressed through the courtesy of the Highland Park Powder Puff.

On Thursday night there were dances by Ellen Horn, pupil of Mildred Haessler, accompanied by Lola Robinson at the piano. Miss Elizabeth Axline sang a pleasing group of songs, Eleanor Erickson, pianist and Dora Krueger violinist played for the fashion promenade.

Mrs. E. R. Baum sang two groups of songs with the engaging manner that endears her to her audience. Mrs. Paul Downing played her accompaniments.

Francis Drake arranged the lighting.

The pageant "Fashion of the Ages" caused much merriment, for it helped us to "see ourselves as others saw us 30 years ago." The contrast with up-to-the minute fashions was all in favor of the modern. Those presenting the pageant were Ethel Morris, Agnes Milligan, Crystal Tolley, Edith Boss, Wilhelmina Theunissen, Anna Moilanen, Flora Milligan, Esther, Soumi, Ruth Nelson, Helen Novak, Hulda Myman and Irene Saari.

Tiny tots in the style show were Annie Rosie Murfey, Edward Warren, Malcolm McFee, Bettie Holabird, Bonnie Jean McElvain.

The junior group of dresses were shown by Sara Jane Murfey, Jewel and Phyllis Stryker, Vivian and Carol Shelk, Sylvia Drake, and Lorain Holabird.

The following young women modelled—Evelyn Soumi, Helen Smith, Nan Craig, Grace McClure, Marion McManus, Florence Rose, Helen Novak, Faith Kuhlman, Jane Anderson, Katherine Johnson, Augusta Schriefer, Enid Pearce, Virgie Cross, Myra Jane Hutton, and Josie Buhl.

The Friendship club wishes to thank every one who gave so generously of time and effort to make the show a success.

Have You Ever Met Mr. Gordon?

He is one of the best-dressed men in Highland Park and yet he doesn't own as many suits as you would naturally think. Here's what he has to say about looking your best at all times . . . . "I've found out that you don't have to buy a lot of clothes to look up-to-the minute—at least not since Miraclean has been developed. I have my clothes Miracleaned regularly by Shore Line Cleaners, and I find that they stay clean longer, and always look spic and span."
