

DEERFIELD NEWS-FLASHES

DEERFIELD NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

Send contributions to local correspondent before Tuesday noon. Help her to make this section interesting.

MRS. LORETTA WILLMAN, Local Editor

Lincoln Ave., Deerfield, Ill.

Tel. Deerfield 153-R

Deerfield Locals

Mrs. W. Schenleber of Milwaukee, Wis. is visiting Mrs. E. H. Selig.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McClaskey and daughter, Frances, of Chicago, were guests of Mrs. Julia Peterson Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Willman of Milwaukee visited relatives in Deerfield Sunday.

Mrs. Julia Peterson visited Mrs. Edward Therrien of Highland Park, Sunday. Mrs. Therrien has been quite ill for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Richards who spent the winter in Ozanne, Fla. have returned.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stadler have rented their home on Orchard street for the summer. Mrs. Stadler and two daughters will leave the first of May for Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Frantz expect to move into their new home in Woodland Park the first of May. Mr. and Mrs. W. Stem and family have rented the Ezra Fritsch home on Hazel avenue, now occupied by the Frantz family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blaine and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Schaeffer of Long Lake. "Sunshine," by Walter Ben Hare, a comedy with music will be presented in the Deerfield school auditorium under the auspices of Deerfield P. T. A. on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 25 and 26 at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Earl Frost is ill with scarlet fever at her home on Osterman avenue.

Make your plans to reserve the hours from 6:30 to 8:30 Thursday evenings of April 24 and May 29 open for your personal desire. Details later.

James Mundstock, Alex Freiman, Eugene Hanner, Elmer Radeke, Leslie Scheskie, Irvin Stilke, Bernice Juhrend, Virginia Reeb, Elsie Samuelson, Rose Soefker, Ruth Soefker, Ida Sticken and Juliana Willman were confirmed in St. Paul's Evangelical church on Palm Sunday.

Mrs. C. T. Anderson entertained the Sewing club Wednesday evening, at her home on Chestnut street.

A group of Deerfield teachers attended the operetta, "Tulip Time," at the Oak Terrace school Tuesday evening. It was presented by the Highwood school children, under the direction of their music teacher.

The North Shore Gas Co. had men inspecting Deerfield gas meters and pipings for gas leaks during the past week.

Mrs. Harry Muhlke substituted in the upper grades of the Deerfield school on Wednesday during Miss Leona Evans' absence.

Graeme Supple of South Bend, Ind. visited in Deerfield Saturday.

Three hundred copies of Saturday's Evening American were distributed in Deerfield Saturday through the generosity of Mr. James Hood. The paper contained an article about Mr. Hood who is seeking office of village president.

Mrs. Fredericks of Osterman avenue will be hostess to the Independent Social club at the home of Mrs. A. J. Johnson on Tuesday afternoon, April 22 at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Hooner entertained Mr. Hooner's aunt, Mrs. Merrick of Des Moines, Ia., last week.

Jane Wood, who is attending Carlton college at Northfield, Minn., is enjoying her spring vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wood on Rosemary terrace.

Dorcas Circle No. 1 met with Mrs. W. W. Clark on Monday evening. Mrs. C. W. Getty is chairman of Circle No. 1 and Mrs. A. C. Stadler is co-chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bailey departed Friday evening for their future home in Seattle, Wash.

St. Paul's Church Receives New Members

Palm Sunday was a banner day at St. Paul's. For the first time in the history of the church worshippers could find no room for worship. 267 people were crowded into the church to witness the beautiful confirmation service which was conducted by the pastor, F. G. Piepenbrok. Thirteen young people publically confessed their faith in God and were consecrated to the service of their Lord and Master, Jesus Christ.

At the evening service the church was comfortably filled with worshippers. It was the last of a series of illustrated Lenten services. A special feature of this closing Lenten service was the reception of eighteen new members into the fellowship of the church. A total of thirty-one united with the St. Paul's Evangelical church at the two services.

The new members are, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Wahl, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Knigge, Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Kalkbrenner, Mr. and Mrs. August Bleich, Mr. and Mrs. John Radeke, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kempher, Alpha Hanner, Frances Borchardt, Mathilda Borchardt, Arthur Borchardt, Virginia Reeb, Rose Soefker, Ruth Soefker, Elsie Samuelson, Ida Sticken, Juliana Willman, Bernice Juhrend, James Mundstock, Eugene Hanner, Alex Freiman, Elmer Radeke, Leslie Scheskie, Irvin Stilke.

Is Eagle Scout

PHOTO BY HECKETSWEILER

Harold Huhn

Harold Huhn, son of John Huhn, is the first Deerfield scout to attain the highest rank in scouting, that of Eagle Scout.

Harold is a member of troop 52 of the Presbyterian church, Rev. Mark Andrews, scoutmaster. He has attended scout camp on two different summers, passing several tests on each of these occasions. He has proven himself to be loyal and helpful in his troop and looks forward to continuing his work until he is old enough to take his place in the ranks as a scout leader.

Many other scouts in the Deerfield-Bannockburn district expect to attain the rank of Eagle in the next few months, some while in camp this summer.

Deerfield Garden club received honorable mention on gate exhibit at the Central States Garden and Flower show held last week in the Chicago Stadium.

The gate was designed and made by Mr. C. Scribner and the exhibit was in charge of Mrs. Scribner and Mrs. Monroe McKillip.

The Ravinia Nurseries received honorable mention on their modernistic garden exhibit and Franken Bros. also received honorable mention on their rock garden.

Wednesday evening, April 30, a card party will be held in the parish hall of Holy Cross church. Mrs. F. Earnst of Rosemary terrace is chairman of arrangements.

The Sewing Circle of St. Paul's Evangelical church will meet at the home of Mrs. Chas. Roll on Thursday afternoon, April 17 at 2 o'clock.

Observe Parent's Day in Deerfield School

Parent's day will be observed in National Health Week on Wednesday, April 30 in the Deerfield Grammar school auditorium.

Through the efforts of Miss Gayle Borneman, school nurse, a most interesting program has been arranged.

Miss Theda Waterman of the Lake County Tuberculosis society will speak and also show an interesting film on tuberculosis, also a speaker, who will talk on Immunization and Prevention of Diphtheria and Small Pox.

It is earnestly hoped that all parents will keep this program in mind and make a special effort to attend.

A number of programs are also being arranged in which children will participate and to which parents are invited and will be held during the week of April 27 to May 3, inclusive.

50 Target Event Feature of Sunday's Shoot

The special feature of the weekly shoot of the Deerfield Gun club held on Sunday, April 13, was the fifty target event, using the Shogren Handicapping system, which equalizes all classes of shooters.

The winners were: first, Robert E. Pettis, Class A, 50; second, Ross Davis, Class C, 48, handicap 1½, total 49½; third, Charles Hunter, Class B, 47, handicap 2, total 49; fourth, C.d.Q. Whittle, Class B, 46, handicap 2½, total 48½.

Last Sunday, April 6, the first meeting of the Northern Illinois Trapshooters League met at Waukegan. Deerfield tied with Geneva for second place.

Wilmot P. T. A. Meets Tomorrow Evening

The Wilmot School P. T. A. will hold its regular meeting Friday evening, April 18, at 8 o'clock, at the school.

The speakers for the evening will be Dr. Spriggs, dentist, and Dr. C. J. Davis, both of Deerfield. In anticipation of health week, which begins April 27, all members should come out to hear these speakers.

There will be business of interest. Everybody welcome.

This is the last meeting before the State convention which is to meet in Evanston April 22, 23 and 24. Since it is so near it is hoped a number of our people may attend.

Our delegates are, Mrs. S. M. Gooder, Mrs. M. O. Hopkins, and Mrs. Delbert Meyers. The alternates are, Mrs. J. P. Craig, Miss Rybolt, and Mrs. J. D. Carter. They all expect to attend a part of the time at least.

A social hour with refreshments will follow the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Reeds and family, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hutchison spent Sunday at Gages and Third Lake.