vices. One of the unique features about this organization is, that it is not a paid choir, these singers are in this organization because of their love for sacred music and because of the worthy service they are able to render. It has been the happy privilege of Mrs. D. L. Barret to be the director of this group and of Miss Charlotte Brand to be their accompanist at the organ.

Shelley's cantata "Our Lord Victorious," presents a very fitting message for Easter Sunday. He carries the audience through many of the scenes which took place during the last few days of Passion Week. Especially emphasizing the experiences of Good Friday and the Great Easter day. The following gives a summary of the presentation.

- Organ Prelude
- Ye Men or Israel—Choir with soprano obligato solo.
- There Stood Three Crosses on a Hill—Contralto solo.
- The Lord's Death—Bass solo, choir with soprano obligato solo.
- The Lord's Burial—Choir.
- Elegy Organ solo.
- The Prophecy of Resurrection—Bass solo, soprano and alto duet, quartet, women's voices, choir.
- At the Lord's Tomb—Choir.
- Behold, There Came a Great Earthquake—Choir.
- He Is Not Here—Tenor solo.
- He Is Risen—Women's voices, bass solo, choir.
- God Hath Highly Exalted Him—Bass solo.
- Go Ye Therefore—Quartet.
- Thou Art With Me—Soprano solo.
- Our Lord Victorious—Choir.
