This Handsome Camera and a Roll of Kodak Film

FREE!

... TO ANY CHILD WHO REACHES THE AGE OF TWELVE THIS YEAR

No Red Tape, No Delay, Nothing to Buy — But Act Promptly Before Our Supply Is Exhausted

TO COMMEMORATE the Fiftieth Anniversary of Kodak, we have been authorized by Eastman Kodak Company to give absolutely without obligation a limited number of splendid new cameras to boys and girls whose twelfth birthdays fall in 1930.

There are no strings tied to the offer. Our cameras will be given away as long as they last during the month of May. There will be no delay. Any child who can qualify and who is accompanied by a parent or guardian will receive his or her camera—with a fresh roll of Kodak Film—at once.

If there is a youngster in your family who has reached or will attain the age of twelve this year, see that he or she calls at our store during May for the free Eastman camera and roll of Kodak Film. Our supply of these gift cameras is limited, and may last but a very short time; therefore it is advisable to act promptly to avoid disappointment.

We can obtain no more cameras once our present stock has been exhausted.
