

Your TRAVELERS CHEQUES Are Your PASSPORT

In foreign lands, strange languages, manners and monies — all tend to bewilder even the most experienced traveler.

Exchange rates fluctuate and are puzzling.

Being constantly "on the move" naturally increases the risk of theft or loss of travel funds.

Then there is the embarrassment of having one's personal check refused. And the difficulty of proving one's identity in far-off, out-of-the-way places.

Annoying experiences such as these may spoil even the most carefully planned, long-awaited trip abroad.

And for these very reasons, to aid travelers in foreign countries, TRAVELERS CHEQUES were invented. These Cheques bear your signature and are an introduction from your Bank to strangers. They are spendable everywhere, and yet you are perfectly protected against their loss or theft.

This Bank would advise that before leaving home you turn your money in to TRAVELERS CHEQUES. They are your financial passport no matter where you may travel.
