friends are urged to reserve that afternoon to help entertain the disabled veterans of the hospital.

On Thursday, May 22, which is Military day at the University of Illinois the members of the D. A. R. of the entire state are invited to witness a review of the R. O. T. C. and the awarding of commissions to the graduates in military science. This is a magnificent spectacular exhibition, thrilling and inspiring, and the invitation comes from the president of the university, David Kinley. Governor Emmerson, General Summerall, and General Parker will also be present and luncheon arrangements have been made for 12:30 in Newman hall.

An Illinois Central train leaves Chicago 9:50 a. m. (Daylight saving time) and arrives in Champaign in time for lunch.

A bus leaving Chicago 8:45 a. m. (Daylight time) north entrance Palmer House and returning after the exercises will be chartered. This bus will be at the disposal of the passengers all day. It carries 33 persons and reservations must be made by May 16. For further information consult. Mrs. Garnett or Mrs. Leaming.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL OPENS ON JUNE 16

welcome her again with much pleasure. Miss Ruth Hardiman, a student in the National Kindergarten college and with several years experience in the Vacation Church schools of Denver, Colorado, will direct the work in the primary. Miss Greenlaw, director of religious education in the Presbyterian church will have charge of the junior department, and act as principal of the school. Rev. F. W. Fischer of the St. John's Evangelical church will direct the work in the intermediate department. There will be a young man in charge of the handcraft and work with the older boys, further announcement to be made later. Miss Betty Ann Shepard will assist Miss Cobb. There will be assistants in other departments.

Children Eligible

Children from three to 13 may be enrolled in the school, and there will be a nominal enrollment fee. All handcraft materials will be sold at cost. The school will continue for five days a week with two and one hour sessions and for five weeks, thus closing on July 18. It affords parents a splendid opportunity to enable their children to receive practice in Christian living and those children whom have attended the school in the past speak most highly of the type of work done and the value of the school in the lives of their boys and girls. For further information call Miss Greenlaw, H. P. 683, or Rev. F. W. Fischer, H. P. 4188. The children of the community are most welcome and their parents are invited to enroll them early in the school.
