Deerpath Theatre Has Brilliant Program in Coming Week; Features

Three outstanding features mark the program of the Deerpath theatre, Lake Forest, for the coming week. These are George Arliss, in "The Green Goddess," on Sunday; Greta Garbo in "Anna Christie," on Monday and Tuesday, and the musical comedy "No, No, Nanette," screen version, on Wednesday and Thursday. Other features of the week also are notable. The program:

Friday, May 23, "Wide Open," with Edward Everett Horton, Louis Fazenda, Patsy Ruth Miller, and T. Roy Barnes. A riot of fun.

Saturday, May 24, matinee and evening, "The Cohens and the Kellys in Scotland," with Charles Murray and George Sidney. Plenty of laughs.

Sunday, May 25, continuous 2 to 11 p. m., George Arliss in "The Green Goddess." The inimitable Arliss in another great success, supported by H. B. Warner, Alice Joyce and Ralph Forbes. A superb production.

Monday and Tuesday, May 26 and 27, Greta Garbo in "Anna Christie." Garbo's first talking picture, with Charles Pickford, George F. Marion and Marie Dressler. An even in the annals of the screen.

Wednesday and Thursday, May 28 and 29, "No, No, Nanette," great musical comedy hit adapted to the screen, with Alexander Gray, Bernice Claire, Louise Fazenda, Zazu Pitts. Dazzling scenes in a spectacle unsurpassed in beauty and charm, songs and music unrivalled.

Friday, May 30, Decoration day program continuous, 2 to 11 p. m., Nancy Carroll in "Honey." Another delightful picture with this attractive little star in the leading role.

To defend the birthright of sound foot-health

To us, correct fitting is the most important part of every sale we make, because it is the thing that is most important to the foot health of the child.

If every mother knew what so many mothers now know from grateful experience, it is probable that they, too, would regard a Pool & Piper fitting as indispensable to the defense of the child's birthright of healthful, normal feet.
