

H. S. GOLF TEAM ARE SUBURBAN CHAMPIONS

Win Title Monday in Tourney at Briergate; Fine Record for Season; Details

Coach Peel's golf team of Deerfield-Shields high school added another victory to their laurels Monday when they won the championship of the Suburban league at Briergate Golf club.

Last Saturday the team won the Illinois state high school championship at the University of Illinois from a field of 150 contestants.

The winning team this year is practically the same as the one which made such a splendid record in high school contests last year, one new member having been substituted.

The boys deserve high praise for their excellent showing this spring, having won 10 matches and lost one in 11 starts, two of their wins being championships.

The following players are included in the golf squad, Robert Saielli, Oswaldo Saielli, Warren Geary, Jack Thomas, John Hubley, Alex Wolak, Armondo Linelli, Sam Toigo, Henry Craig and John Lenzi.

The players who won the suburban league championship and their scores are as follows:

Warren Geary	80
Robert Saielli	86
Jack Thomas	86
Oswaldo Saielli	90

The teams finished as follows:

Deerfield-Shields	342
New Trier	348
Morton	392
Evanston	394
Proviso	398
Oak Park	withdrew

The coaches and students who enjoyed the hospitality of the Briergate club Monday were warm in their praise of the treatment received there and express appreciation of the courtesy of the club.

"Vagabond King" at Alcyon Next Week; Dennis King, Star

"The Vagabond King" a musical operetta adopted from Justin Huntly McCarthy's Novel "If I Were King" introduces Dennis King famous star of the musical stage in his first talking and singing picture. The story takes us back to 1463 when the vagabonds of Paris were on the verge of revolt against their weak king, Louis XI, because he made no attempt to defend Paris against the attacking army of the Burgundians. Francois Villon (Dennis King) the singing leader of the Vagabonds falls in love with the king's beautiful niece (Jeanette McDonald) who promises her hand to the man who frees Paris and saves the king's throne. Thus Villon leads his vagabond army, singing their thrilling "Song of the Vagabonds" into a terrific battle with the Burgundians and returns victorious. Lillian Roth, O. P. Heggie and Warner Oland are taking leading parts. "The Vagabond King" is filmed entirely in natural color and will be presented next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. There will be no increase in admission prices.

George Arliss in his latest Vitaphone success "The Green Goddess" is the current attraction. A double feature is scheduled for showing on Saturday. Edward Everett Horton in "Wide Open" with Patsy Ruth Miller, and "The Devil's Pit" a south sea drama with an entire native cast. Buster Keaton, one of the foremost comedians of the silent screen will be heard and seen for the first time in "Free and Easy" a satire of Hollywood studio life. An impressive array of stars, players and directors was assembled for its cast. It will be shown Sunday only.

"No, No, Nanette" a delightful musical comedy with all-star cast featuring Alexander Grey and Bernice Claire, is next Monday's and Tuesday's attraction.
