

SUMMER HOMES OF RAVINIA ARTISTS

north shore this year was Mme. Lucrezia Bori. This soprano has lived at Lake Forest for several summers past, and will again make her abode in this suburb during the coming season. Mme. Elisabeth Rethberg is equally particular about arranging for a house well in advance, and she will live in Winnetka in a beautiful home situated near the lake where she can enjoy daily swims. Mme. Rethberg is now in Europe.

Word comes that Mme. Yvonne Gall, who is in Paris where she spent the winter singing at the Paris Opera, will sail for New York June 3. She will go immediately to Ravinia to occupy the house she has leased in Highland Park. Miss Florence Macbeth has engaged a place in Ravinia within easy walking distance of the opera house. Mme. Julia Clausen will live in Highland Park and Mme. Ina Bourskaya will have a house in Glencoe.

Giovanni Martinelli, who is making a brief stay in Italy where he has a home of his own, has engaged a house at Winnetka which has been his summer home for the past several seasons. Mr. Martinelli finds that the realities of home life make the best antidote for the unrealities of the world of make believe, and spends much of his leisure time working in his garden. Edward Johnson has long been a neighbor of the Martinellis in Winnetka and expects to live there again this summer. Mr. Johnson will be accompanied by his daughter who is his constant companion during the summer months. Mario Chamlee will locate with his family in Highland Park, where they will not only enjoy the comforts of a commodious house, but of a large garage as well, for Mr. Chamlee is an enthusiastic motorist who likes to work on his own car. Armand Tokatyan will occupy a house at Ravinia.

Others Located
Giuseppe Danise, who went to Europe shortly after the close of his New York season, will live in Glencoe during the coming summer. Mario Basiola will live in Highland Park. This suburb will again be the home of Virgilio Lazzari. At present Mr. and Mrs. Lazzari are in Assisi, Italy, which is the former's birthplace. Leon Rothier, of the basso contingent, has engaged a house in Winnetka for the summer.

Miss Ruth Page, premiere danseuse of Ravinia Opera, recently returned from Moscow where she filled an engagement. Ordinarily she lives in a home of her own in Chicago, but she has leased a place at Ravinia for the summer. Gennaro Papi, one of the principal conductors, has purchased his own house at Glencoe, and Louis Hasselmans, likewise a principal conductor, will live at Highland Park. Wilfrid Pelletier has taken a house at Glencoe, while Giacomo Spadoni has become a permanent resident of the north shore, having established himself in a home of his own in Ravinia.
